Swearing In of Alderman Test In Vancouver

Miller to Take Office Despite Shortage of Ballots at By-election

Court Move Expected

VANCOUVER (CP)—Former Mayor George C. Miller, elected to the city council over Alfred Hurry in Wednesday's controversial, ballot-short by-election, will be sworn in as an alderman next Monday, Mayor Lyle Telford said today.

The mayor said under the law he could do nothing else but swear Mr. Miller into office to fill the seat left vacant on the council by the death of Alderman Fred Crone.

"However we must not be caught in any legal tangle," the mayor said. "I propose to take all due precaution by pointing out to the council the possibility of the election being challenged."

Mr. Hurry, Co-operative Commonwealth candidate whom Mr. Miller defeated by a plurality of more than 1,000 votes, said a meeting of the C.C.F. campaign and regional committee would be called soon to decide if a protest should be made.

Mr. Hurry previously had announced he would protest the election of Mr. Miller because several hundred voters were unable to exercise their franchise in a last-hour rush to the polls which exhausted ballots at several stations.

Messrs. Miller and Hurry agreed the city council has no jurisdiction in the matter. If a protest were made it would have to be carried to the courts by any five electors or the defeated candidate.

NEW AGREEMENT IN U.S. COAL FIELDS

Negotiations Between Companies and Employees Result in Contract

NEW YORK (AP)—W. L. Robison of Cleveland, chairman of the joint bituminous negotiations committee, announced shortly before noon today the conferees had agreed on a new contract between the United Mine Workers of America (C.I.O.) and the operators of the Appalachian eight-state area. It includes the "union shop."

Robison's announcement, read as he emerged from the meeting of the subcommittee, indicated the agreement included no mention of the "union shop." As he was talking to reporters, however, Dr. John R. Steelman, conciliator of the United States Labor Department, broke in to say the chief of the demands made by John L. Lewis, C.I.O. chieftain and president of the U.M.W.A., had been agreed to.

It was not indicated immediately how many operators, which covers eight states, would go along with the agreement.

The union shop means all new employees must join the union within a specified time, although old employees who are non-union are not required to become union members. This differs from the "closed shop" demanded by the United Mine Workers in that all employees must join the union under a "closed shop" agreement.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, 5 a.m. today—Pressure remains high over British Columbia and relatively low over the Gulf of the Islands. The weather has been fine and warm in all parts of this province with the exception of the north coast, where light showers have occurred. Temperature is moderate on the prairies.

47 Saved After Fish Boats Sink

One Death in Crash of Parker and Edith C. Rose Southwest of Nova Scotia

YARMOUTH, N.S. (CP)—All 48 men aboard the New England fishing schooners Isabelle Parker and Edith C. Rose, which foundered early Wednesday after colliding in a dense fog, were believed accounted for at noon today.

One of the number was dead. Thirty-three men were picked up by coastal and fishing vessels and brought to Yarmouth after hours of rowing toward the coast in open dories. Three men were reported at Jonesport, Me., where they were landed, and 11 others were reported to be on their way to Yarmouth by bus after reaching the coast safely.

Frank Nickerson, 62, died aboard the schooner Isabelle Parker shortly after she was in collision with the Gloucester schooner Edith C. Rose almost midway between this southern Nova Scotia port and Boston. It was believed he died of a heart attack.

The body was brought ashore in one of the dories which the fishermen rowed for hours until sighted by rescuers near the coast.

The men who are in Yarmouth are expected to leave for Boston tonight.

CAPTAIN'S STORY

Capt. Albert Hines of the Edith C. Rose was among the group which reached here this morning.

"I was asleep when I heard the crash," the skipper said. "I went on deck and saw we had crashed into the Parker."

"I ran down again to get on a pair of boots and when I got out again I saw we were sinking fast. The bow was partly under water, anyway."

"Some of the men were trying to lower a dory. One got away and about 15 men tried to get in but they all couldn't and some were forced into the water."

"Then I saw that four of the men, John Godick, Herbert Surlette, Kenneth Devine and my son, Ted, were trapped forward. I yelled to the Parker to pull out so they could be saved."

"The men on the Parker heard me and they hauled out and we got the four men out safely. I didn't want to see them killed. You know, I lost another son in the Ellen T. Marshall when she blew up five years ago."

"The Ellen T. Marshall caught fire and burned to the water's edge off the Nova Scotia coast in December, 1933. Three men were lost."

"I put on a lifebelt and after Ted had jumped overboard I followed. Two fellows in a boat picked me up."

"We had no compass, no food, no water, no hats, no underclothes. We rowed 150 miles and were picked up last night. We certainly were thankful to be found. The people were mighty good to us everywhere and we appreciated everything they did to make us feel like humans again."

Nine of the men—five from the Rose and four from the Parker—were picked up by the Yarmouth coastal vessel Amactia, which came across them as she headed toward Boston. They were in two separate boats.

Alaska Road Survey to Proceed

Eastern Route for Highway Project Will Be Studied

The British Columbia government this summer will carry out a ground survey of the eastern or Rocky Mountain trench route through British Columbia for the Alaska Highway.

Two survey parties, it was learned today, will leave at the end of this month to work from each end of the proposed route which is an alternative to the western route by way of Hazelton and Atlin.

The western route was roughly surveyed some years ago, so the eastern route is now being covered to complete the information that is available on the B.C. section of the highway scheme, it was explained.

The ground reconnaissance will be in addition to aerial inspection of the ground planned by the Alaska Highway Commission.

One party will go in from Fort St. James, working from the end of the Manson Creek mining road, down the Manson River to Finlay Forks. From there they will follow the Finlay River to Fort Graham and thence by Whitewater to Sifton Pass, the height of land between the Arctic and Pacific divides.

The other party will go in by way of Telegraph Creek and McDanee Creek and will work south from Lower Post on the Liard River, following the Liard and Ketchikan Rivers to Sifton Pass. This is the route roughly described as the Rocky Mountain trench and is regarded by some engineers as much more favorable from the point of view of construction problems than the western route.

The new survey is financed by a $25,000 vote passed at the last session of the Legislature. The information will be made available to the Alaska Highway Commission.

Six New Planes For Trans-Canada

MONTREAL (CP)—Trans-Canada Airlines have put in an order for six new planes known as the Lockheed 14-type, company officials announced today. The first plane is expected to be delivered next week, while the five others are expected by the first of August.

Officials said the planes would replace ones in service on the Vancouver-Seattle run and on the Lethbridge-Calgary-Edmonton route.

Japanese Occupy Foreign Area of Amoy, China

Naval Forces Quickly Act After Fatal Wounding of Chinese

New Shanghai Threat

SHANGHAI (AP)—Japanese naval forces Friday occupied the international settlement of Kulungsu at Amoy and a Japanese spokesman warned "similar action" might "be necessary" respecting the international areas at Shanghai.

Kulungsu is an island in the harbor of Amoy, Fukien province, port 600 miles southwest of Shanghai, which the Japanese occupied several months ago.

The international settlement, one and a half square miles in area and with a normal foreign population of 250, is administered by a council in which British and Americans participate.

Domei asserted that while the Japanese naval commander in the Amoy area was in the Kulungsu settlement Thursday, unidentified persons shot and fatally wounded Hung Li-hui, president of the Amoy Chamber of Commerce.

Japanese said this endangered the commander, entitling them to exercise the "right of self defence."

Dispatches reported that a few hours later, without warning to the settlement's council or any foreign authorities, Japanese naval forces moved into the settlement on the grounds the council had failed to take active steps to capture the assassins.

In Shanghai a Japanese naval spokesman, asked whatever like action was contemplated against the International Settlement and the French Concession, replied: "It may be necessary to take similar action at Shanghai if a case like that at Kulungsu occurs."

40 CHINESE SLAIN

For several months Japanese authorities here have contended authorities of the Settlement and French Concession have failed to halt "terrorism" which has resulted in the assassination of more than 40 Chinese connected with Japanese-dominated government bodies.

A United States official at Shanghai said the legal position of the Kulungsu settlement was identical with that of Shanghai's International Settlement, the only difference being that foreign interests at the south China port were much smaller than here.

The Japanese naval spokesman's statements was the first open threat of occupation of Shanghai's foreign areas. These sections are strongly defended by British, French and United States troops and warships of all three nations and Italy.

Kulungsu has a total population of about 65,000, a 50 per cent increase since the Japanese occupation of Amoy city.

One British destroyer was in Amoy harbor. The nearest United States naval vessel was a gunboat at Swatow, farther down the coast.

French Chamber Gives Daladier Confidence Vote

Foreign and Domestic Policies Upheld On Division of 375 to 230

Two-day Debate Ends

PARIS (AP)—The Chamber of Deputies tonight voted confidence in the foreign and domestic policies of Premier Edouard Daladier. The vote was 375 to 230.

The vote came after the Premier declared France would continue foreign policy of opposition to the authoritarian states would have been impossible without his domestic policy of "putting France back to work."

M. Daladier's victory ended a two-day foreign affairs debate set off yesterday when the Premier declared France would continue building alliances and increasing her armed forces as long as her neighbors maintained "massive mobilizations."

The vote of confidence was on a technical Radical-Socialist motion to proceed with the Chamber's scheduled business. It read:

"The Chamber, approving the declarations of the government in it, rejecting all additions, passes to the order of the day."

U.S. Farm Bill $1,218,000,000

Senate Sends It Back to House With $338,000,000 Added

WASHINGTON (AP)—A record $1,218,000,000 farm appropriation bill passed the United States Senate today.

The vote on final passage was announced as 61 to 14. Earlier, the Senate had defeated 42 to 28 a motion to send the bill back to its appropriations committee for reduction.

The bulky annual agriculture measure now goes back to the House for consideration of more than $338,000,000 in increases.

The Senate failed to decrease a single item previously approved by the House, but inserted or increased more than 100 items.

Most of the funds in the big bill would be used in an effort to improve farm income and prices, either through direct benefit payments to farmers or government programs to remove farm surpluses.

The Senate approved $225,000,000 for parity payments to farmers in addition to $500,000,000 for soil conservation cheques. It also added $113,000,000 for removal of farm surpluses.

Bank Has No Counsel

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. W. D. Herridge, leader of the New Democracy movement, is not counsel for the Bank of Canada now, Finance Minister C. A. Dunning said in the House of Commons today.

He was answering a question from J. F. Pouliot, Liberal, Temiscouata, Que. The bank has no counsel at present.

Turkey Joins Forces With Bloc

Chamberlain Announces Mutual Defence Pact Against Aggression in Mediterranean

By J. F. SANDERSON Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON—Another link was forged in Europe's peace chain today when Prime Minister Chamberlain announced in the House of Commons a mutual defence agreement with Turkey covering the Mediterranean.

A definite and long-range military agreement will be concluded between the two countries, Mr. Chamberlain declared.

In the meantime, in the event of an act of aggression leading to war in the Mediterranean area, the two nations are prepared to co-operate effectively and lend each other all the aid and assistance in their power.

It was reported meanwhile that a similar agreement between France and Turkey will be announced shortly. It is understood the Franco-Turkish pact is being held up by negotiations between Paris and Ankara over French control of the Sanjak of Alexandretta, a strategic seaport in Syria and formerly in Asiatic Turkey.

SIX POWERS IN BLOC

The Prime Minister's announcement brings Turkey into the anti-aggression bloc along with Britain, France, Poland, Roumania and Greece.

The Anglo-Turkish pledge, which is reciprocal, covers the entire Mediterranean area. It means that if war starts anywhere through an act of aggression and extends to the Mediterranean, Britain and Turkey will pool their resources.

The Prime Minister said the "two governments recognize it is also necessary to establish security in the Balkans, and they are consulting together with the object of achieving this purpose as speedily as possible."

This arrangement does not preclude either government from making agreements with other countries in the general interests.

Two in Manchester Held for Bombings

Police Question Men On Blasts Which Damaged Four Buildings

MANCHESTER, Eng. (CP-Reuters)—Two men today were held for questioning about bombings, which damaged four buildings. No casualties were caused by the blasts, which police attributed to the outlawed Irish Republican Army.

Authorities said the explosions resulted from gelignite bombs slipped into letter-boxes and detonated by time fuses. Police squads and fire trucks patrolled the main business district where all the explosions occurred between 1 a.m. and dawn.

An automobile salesroom, a jewelry shop and shoe store were among the business places damaged. Damage in a fourth building was comparatively minor because the bomb was discovered and plunged into a pail of water just before it exploded.

PREMIER BACK, BUT SILENT

"I did not go to Ottawa to ask for loans," Premier T. D. Pattullo said when he arrived back in Victoria at 1.20 this afternoon after a flight "by Trans-Canada Airlines from Toronto."

"I have had some very interesting conversations which should turn out well," the Premier said, but would not give any further details of his negotiations with the federal government.

The Premier said financing of Dominion-provincial works agreements has been satisfactorily arranged, adding, "that was done before I left."

Prior to his trip there was a question whether Ottawa would advance funds for the province's share of works plans without some degree of dictation in the handling of provincial government finances.

The Premier talked to financial men in Toronto and in some circles this was interpreted as meaning a provincial attempt to float a loan for road building. Recently a $3,000,000 loan for financing relief was obtained. The Premier denied, however, he was seeking money in the east.

of the consolidation of peace," the Prime Minister added.

Mr. Chamberlain emphasized that the Anglo-Turkish declaration was not directed at any particular power. This apparently was added to dispel any impression in Germany that the anti-aggression bloc is intended to encircle the Reich.

"The declaration," he said, "is designed to assure Great Britain and Turkey of mutual aid and assistance should the necessity arise."

"It was recognized by the two governments that certain matters require more precise definition, and an examination of them is proceeding."

PALESTINE DEFENCE

Turkey, occupying a strategic position in the eastern Mediterranean, is looked on in Britain as a valuable ally in the event of war. She controls the Dardanelles, entrance to the Black Sea, and is in a position, if necessary, to come to Britain's aid in defence of Palestine and Egypt.

Clement Attlee, Labor opposition leader, expressed satisfaction with Mr. Chamberlain's statement and asked if it would be followed by Anglo-Turkish staff talks.

The Prime Minister said it would not be until a full agreement had been signed.

When Lieut. Commander Reginald Fletcher, Labor, asked if the term "Mediterranean area" was employed in order to exclude the Dardanelles and the Black Sea, Mr. Chamberlain replied, "no sir."

Asked whether the term included sea leading from the Mediterranean such as the Adriatic and the Black Sea, the Prime Minister answered, "I should prefer not to give a definition."

Mr. Chamberlain said a similar statement would be made at Ankara, the Turkish capital, tonight.

British-Russian Pact Expected

London Reports Say Potemkin Will Speed Anti-aggression Talks

LONDON (CP)—The House of Commons recessed for the week-end this afternoon following Prime Minister Chamberlain's announcement of the defence agreement with Turkey.

France and Soviet Russia also have been negotiating pacts with Turkey and British commentators were confident an agreement between Britain and Soviet Russia was near.

Conclusion of the Anglo-Turkish pact brought to four the number of nations agreeing to take full part in the anti-aggression bloc being built by Britain and France to prevent Nazi expansion at the expense of small and independent eastern European countries.

France, Britain and Poland already have assumed mutual defence obligations, while the integrity of Roumania and Greece has been guaranteed by the two western democracies.

Inclusion of Russia is expected to be brought about when Vladimir Potemkin, Soviet foreign vice-commissar, meets Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax and Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet of France in Geneva a week from Monday. Potemkin recently returned from Turkey, where he is understood to have laid the foundations for a Russo-Turkish defence pact.

Seasonal Workers Will Have Votes

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia's seasonal workers will not be disenfranchised by elimination of absentee voting in the next federal election, according to word received here from Hon. Ian Mackenzie.

The Minister of National Defence sent a statement from Jules Gastonguay, chief electoral officer, to John Stanton, solicitor for loggers, fishermen and sailors' union here. The statement said seasonal workers absent from their usual residence on election day may vote in the district in which they are working.

Royal Vessel Steams Slowly Toward Quebec

Australia Reduced to Five Knots at Times as Fog Patches Met

Schedule Still Holds

By R. K. CARNEGIE Associated Press Staff Writer

Aboard R.M.S. Empress of Australia—This Royal cruise ship, her crew hampered by poor visibility, proceeded slowly to Canada today at a speed ranging from 18 down to five knots.

The big liner, forced by heavy fog to drift idly for 24 hours, got under way again at 8 a.m., ship's time (2.15 a.m., P.S.T.), forced to come to a standstill occasionally owing to mist, the Empress made little more than 18 knots in the first three hours after resuming the voyage.

All aboard the Royal vessel were delighted on awakening to hear the ship's siren giving long, single blasts every two minutes. That indicated the liner was moving. Since early Thursday the siren had sounded a double blast, constantly reminding the King and Queen and their suite that they were at a standstill 350 miles east of Cape Race, Newfoundland.

Mist still shrouded the Atlantic early today, but the passengers did not voice disappointment after viewing the dense fog for an entire day. Through the light fog—it appeared to be a shallow layer—a pale sun could be seen trying to pierce the clouds.

BRIEFLY AT FULL SPEED

At one time this morning Capt. A. R. Meikle, commander of the Empress, ordered full speed ahead, but the speed later was reduced sharply when mist again closed in on the vessel, which is due in Quebec Monday morning.

Throughout the voyage the Empress has encountered storms and fog, but none of the officers doubt she will not dock as scheduled. Vice Admiral Sir Dudley North, commander of the Royal Flotilla, emphasized the Empress still had time to spare.

After hoping vainly all yesterday that the fog would lift and enable the Empress and her convoying cruisers, the Southampton and Glasgow, to proceed, Capt. Meikle and his officers on the bridge waited through the night for any improvement in visibility.

At 5.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon an effort was made to get under way. The Southampton turned on her penetrating searchlight to show the way. The light gleamed blue and white as it cut through the fog.

For 15 minutes the liner moved ahead slowly, but it was no use. The vessel again was stopped and drifted idly until daylight.

Destroyers to Meet Royal Squadron

Skeena and Saguenay Go to Greet Australia in St. Lawrence Gulf

By ARTHUR ANDREW Canadian Press Staff Writer

Aboard H.M.C.S. Saguenay—Dressed from stem to stern in honor of the second anniversary of the Coronation, the Canadian destroyers Skeena and Saguenay, pushed eastward today to meet the Royal Flotilla bearing King George and Queen Elizabeth to Canada.

A warm sun shone on the destroyers, but Cabot Strait was dotted with ice packs. Forecast of a deep disturbance moving toward the Gulf of St. Lawrence had not materialized and hopes were held the welcoming ships would meet the Empress of Australia and the cruisers Glasgow and Southampton tonight as arranged.

Should bad weather prevent tonight's rendezvous, the Skeena and Saguenay will meet the convoy off Gaspé tomorrow. The two Canadian warships left Halifax last night and will escort the Empress to Quebec.

Says Agitators Oppose Wheat Bill

Gardiner Tells Commons Bulk of Prairie Opinion for 70-Cent Plan

OTTAWA (CP)—Turning the tables on western critics of the government's wheat legislation in the House of Commons, Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner today charged it was they and not the government who were attempting to "sabotage the Wheat Board" as one of the sharpest debates of the session broke out on third reading of the 70-cent initial wheat price bill.

One sure way to sabotage the Wheat Board, declared the minister, was to set a price so high in relation to world wheat prices that the rest of Canada would not stand for the difference being paid out of the public treasury.

Apart from paid agitators, to whom western Canada had become accustomed, he said there was no complaint against the government program which, for the first time in history offered western farmers a choice of the three methods of marketing wheat which had been advocated in western Canada.

One was a government board, to which farmers could deliver wheat and obtain an initial price of 70 cents with the right to participate in the board's profits. Another was a co-operative agency under their own control which they could set up under the bill guaranteeing an initial price of 60 cents through co-operatives, and the third was the open market, which, judging by their actions, more than 50 per cent of the farmers preferred.

The whole agitation for a higher initial price than 70 cents, from the Wheat Board had been financed by the owners of grain handling facilities, said Mr. Gardiner.

This was described as a serious charge by M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F., Rosetown-Biggar, Sask., who claim it reflected on the wheat committee headed by Premier John Bracken of Manitoba.

Mr. Gardiner said he had not mentioned the Bracken committee and had made no reflections on anyone, but advertisements had been inserted in the press and paid for and the names of those inserting them were attached to the advertisements.

Victor Quelch, Social Credit, Acadia, Alberta, expressed belief the "whole drought area of the prairies should be taken out of wheat production."

Reserves of prairie farmers had been wiped out by years of distress and they needed a breathing spell, he said. He was not advocating a government reserve fund, but did urge a wheat price which would enable the farmers themselves to set up reserve funds.

S. C. Johnston, Social Credit, Bow River, Alberta, said the drought area should be dealt with separately and treated as a national responsibility. Then the rest of the prairie farming area could be put under a system of crop insurance.

SECOND READING

OTTAWA (CP)—The government's broad wheat program, discussed almost continuously for the past week in the House of Commons, today was complete except for routine third reading and the 70-cent a bushel Wheat Board bill was given second reading yesterday by 128 to 50, with five western Liberals voting with the solid Conservative, C.C.F. and Social Credit groups against the government.

The Liberal dissenters were among those who thought the initial wheat price for this year should be at least 80 cents or should be left for determination later in the year by the Wheat Board and the Cabinet. They were Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Melville, Sask., former Minister of Agriculture; W. J. Ward, Dauphin, Man.; Dr. H. R. Fleming, Humboldt, Man.; J. A. MacMillan, Mackenzie, Sask., and Harry Leader, Portage la Prairie. The debate, which saw arguments repeated many times from various quarters of the House, was climaxed yesterday by an outburst from F. J. Pouliot, Liberal, Temiscouata, Que., who declared he was "fed up with these speeches." In fact, he "found them crazy."

John H. Blackmore, Social Credit leader, described a 70-cent price as wholly inadequate and saw no reason why it should be reduced to that figure this year.

5,000-BUSHEL LIMIT

When the bill was in committee, Rev. T. C. Douglas, C.C.F., Weyburn, Sask., asked for an explanation of the insertion in the reprinted bill of a limitation of 5,000 bushels which any one producer could sell the Wheat Board. Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of Trade, replied that on reconsideration the government felt that, if agriculture as an industry should be protected and assisted, that purpose would be well served within a limit of 5,000 bushels from any one farmer.

"I would regard a man, with 5,000 bushels of wheat he was able to sell at 70 cents as reasonably fortunate and should no longer draw on the public treasury," the minister said.

Where a farmer had to sell his wheat above 5,000 bushels on the open market, Mr. Euler did not fear damaging competition for the Wheat Board. The man with more than 5,000 bushels could probably afford to hold until the market would give him a fair profit.

German Reported Killed By Poles

BERLIN (AP)—Dnb, official German news agency, reported today from Landsberg, close to Germany's frontier with Poland, that a German fisherman was shot and killed by Poles while crossing the river Odra in his boat. The Polish-German boundary is in the middle of the river. The agency said the fisherman, name Koschitzki, possessed fishing rights in the river, and also had a permit frontier certificate entitling him to cross between the Polish and German sides.

MANY GERMANS GO TO DANZIG

Warsaw Paper Reports They Wear Civilian Clothes But Are Organized

WARSAW (AP)—The nationalist newspaper Wiecez Warszawski today reported large numbers of Germans in civilian clothes, but "obviously organized," were moving from Germany into Danzig, the Baltic Free City which Chancellor Hitler wants returned to the Reich. Many Danzig residents have been so intimidated they do not leave their homes, Wiecez Warszawski declared.

LONDON (AP)—British newspapers today praised the declaration by Prime Minister Chamberlain yesterday that any attempt to change the status of the Free City of Danzig by force and thereby "threaten Polish independence," would bring war.

Observers expressed little concern over yesterday's editorial in Izvestia, Russian government organ in Moscow, declaring Russia wanted guarantees from Britain and France for herself, as well as for Poland and Rumania, before entering into a security agreement.

HITLER TO VISIT FORTS NEAR FRANCE

Expected to Make Tour of Nazi Lines Along Boundary

BERLIN (CP-Havas)—Chancellor Hitler shortly will inspect the lines of fortifications facing France, in company with leading Nazi chiefs. It was reported by a generally reliable source today.

The Chancellor first will visit Godesburg, according to this source, before proceeding to the frontier fortifications.

Speeches yesterday by Premier Daladier of France and Prime Minister Chamberlain of Great Britain warning Germany to demobilize and to keep her troops away from Danzig were ridiculed by the official German news agency, DNB, and the semi-official editorial service, Deutscher Dienst.

The former asserted that Daladier's speech "once more sinned by the absence of political realism."

Deutscher Dienst asserted the two speeches were an attempt to camouflage a policy of encirclement.

Mrs. Barrymore Says She Was Slapped

Asks Divorce Also Because She Claims John Kicked Her Shins

LOS ANGELES (AP)—John Barrymore, the suave lover of the screen, slapped her face in Hollywood and kicked her shins in St. Louis, his dark-haired fourth wife, Elaine, charged today as she demanded for the second time a divorce to end their 30-month marriage.

The 23-year-old actress—who met her husband, twice her age, in a New York hospital in 1935, changed her surname from Jacobs to Barrymore out of admiration, followed him in their celebrated "Ariel and Caliban" transcontinental game of tag, and finally wed him in Yuma, Ariz., in November, 1936—signed a complaint similar in many points to the one she filed in January, 1937, but later withdrew when they were reconciled.

Most embarrassing, the complaint recited, was his filing of a suit last week asserting she and others had defrauded him of $300,000—a charge she took occasion to deny.

Other demands were for "reasonable alimony" from an income which she estimated at $5,000 weekly, appointment of a receiver for his property, a division of community holdings and an injunction to restrain him from disposing of them.

Senators Approve Crop Bonus Plan

OTTAWA (CP)—The senate banking committee today approved, with some minor clarifying amendments, the government's bill which would bonus farmers for crop acreage in the prairie provinces. Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, attended the committee and explained the measure.

Parliamentary Counsel W. F. O'Connor, answering Conservative Leader Arthur Meighen, questioned the constitutionality of the bill in the light of the Privy Council's decisions in the matter of social insurance.

"Then in your opinion this is invalid?" suggested Mr. Meighen. "The bill as a whole," declared Mr. O'Connor.

"We may have to go through that all over again," commented Government Leader Raoul Dandurand.

Calgary to Have $1,783,000 Plant

CALGARY (CP)—C. M. Moore, superintendent of the manufacturing plant of Imperial Oil Limited here, has announced that construction of an entire combination unit for refining, at a cost of $1,783,000, will be started next week. The new plant is scheduled to be ready for operation by the end of 1939, said Mr. Moore.

CALGARY (CP)—Six-year-old William Wilson, learning to ride a bicycle, suffered severe injuries when he fell from the cycle in front of a moving street car, which dragged him 15 feet. The safety fender prevented the boy from going under the wheels.

CALGARY (CP)—For the four months ended April 30 Calgary city waterworks shows a surplus of almost six times as great as that shown in the same period last year. The four months' surplus this year was $11,183.46, last year for the same period it was $2,024.03.

CALGARY (CP)—Sarcee military camp will be a busy spot this year. Approximately 1,700 officers and men will be under canvas there for eight days during the regular summer training period in the first week of July.

Several units from Edmonton, Medicine Hat, Drumheller and Lethbridge will be training at Sarcee this year.

BODIES EXHUMED IN MURDER RING HUNT

24 Persons Held In Philadelphia as Insurance Racket Traced

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two more bodies of suspected victims of an eastern-states insurance-murder ring were ordered exhumed today following swift court moves which investigators said had etched in sharper outline the roles 13 prisoners played in a slay-for-pay racket.

The bodies were those of Abraham Sherman and Antonio Giacobbe. Their widows were among 24 persons held as members, customers and "dupes" of the ring which police say may have plotted more than 100 deaths by poison, drowning and faked accidents in the past 10 years.

Giacobbe's widow, Mrs. Millie Giacobbe, was one of 13 of the prisoners herded before police judges yesterday and held for trial, the grand jury, further hearing or extradition. Many had been arraigned previously, but were called up again on additional charges. Mrs. Giacobbe was charged with murder. Her arraignment and the subsequent order for exhumation of her husband's body brought prominently to the fore the name of a man known to police as a practitioner of witchcraft and called the ring's "Beau Brummel." He is Paul Petrillo, charged with murder and with being an accessory to murder. Police Captain James Kelly said Mrs. Giacobbe had accused Petrillo in a statement of slowly poisoning her husband after making love to her.

ROUMANIA ADDS TO ARMED FORCES

Germany Said to Approve Use of Credit From Britain

BUCHAREST (AP)—Roumania, apparently with Germany's acquiescence, moved today to strengthen her military machine and develop her industries with at least $15,000,000 ($70,200,000) of British capital.

A source close to the government said that Germany, which has a new trade agreement with Roumania, had approved in advance trade negotiations with Great Britain which culminated in an initial loan of $5,000,000.

This sum is a state credit which will be used mainly to purchase aircraft and armaments from British manufacturers. Another $5,000,000, it was reliably learned, will be raised shortly by private British interests for industrial development in Roumania. A third instalment of $5,000,000 would be used to establish a British-Roumanian bank and bolster the Roumanian currency in British markets.

Verdict of Suicide

LONDON (AP)—A coroner's verdict yesterday said Mrs. Joan Lascelles committed suicide while her mental balance was disturbed by illness. Mrs. Lascelles, widow of Major E. C. Lascelles, died Wednesday of gunshot wounds at her estate at Lutterworth, Leicestershire. Her brother-in-law, the Earl of Harewood, is the husband of the Princess Royal.

ROTHSCHILD SET FREE AT VIENNA

VIENNA (AP)—Louis Rothschild, a member of the family of noted bankers, was released by the Gestapo (secret police) today. He had been a prisoner since April, 1938.

He left immediately by airplane for Zurich, Switzerland. Rothschild for 13 months was confined to two rooms in Vienna's Metropole Hotel, where the Gestapo held numerous political prisoners.

His rooms adjoined those of Kurt von Schuschnigg, former Austrian Chancellor, who presumably still is being held in the building.

REFUGEE GROUPS TO GO TO GUIANA

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain announced in the House of Commons today the government welcomed a plan for the experimental settlement of refugees from central Europe in British Guiana as recommended by a British-American commission.

He said an experimental settlement would be financed by private sources, but the government would co-operate and would appoint the necessary administrative officers.

The statement expressed a hope settlement could begin next autumn.

The statement said that if the prospects of development are good and capital is adequate for the needs of large-scale settlement, the government will provide "arterial communications."

Autonomy would be favorably considered, although essential services and authority must necessarily remain under the colonial government, if large-scale settlement succeeded, the statement concluded.

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)

—Iliana Laurel, Russian singer and estranged wife of screen comedian Stan Laurel, sought today to escape serving a five-day jail sentence and payment of a $100 fine for creating a disturbance in a cafe while intoxicated.

The singer immediately after sentence was pronounced yesterday gave notice of appeal and was freed on $1,000 bond.

BRITAIN INCREASES DUNGAREE ARMY

Many Listed For Industries If Country
Must Defend Itself

LONDON (CP)—A new list of "reserved occupations," men and women who are generally precluded from joining the regular or territorial armies and their auxiliary services in peacetime, was issued last night.

It affects 3,500,000 of the nation's 11,000,000 men between the ages of 18 and 50.

The list is part of the government's effort to build up a "dun-garee army" to keep the wheels of industry moving at top speed and maintain essential services during war.

It includes such occupation as doctors, shipbuilders, miners and engineers. In each category the list stipulates the age above which no person may enlist.

At the same time the government agreed in the House of Commons to modify provisions for treatment of conscientious objectors under the Compulsory Military Training Act now before the House.

Ernest Brown, Labor Minister, stated—the most difficult problem, that of defining work of national importance to which such objectors would be assigned, would be handled by the courts.

MERCY KILLER IN NEW YORK FREED

NEW YORK (AP)—Louis Greenfield, acquitted "mercy killer" of his 16-year-old imbecile son, Jerome, planned a new life today for himself, his wife and probably an adopted son to take the place of the boy he "loved more than anyone."

Freed yesterday on a manslaughter charge by a jury of married men and women, who deliberated only four hours; the one-time prosperous milliner, taut and pallid-faced, fell into a chair and sobbed as the verdict was announced.

During the trial Greenfield, 45, testified he had chloroformed his son January 12 after "voices" had told him, "stop his suffering, stop his suffering, it is the will of God."

Death Declared Accident

LONDON (AP)—A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict of accidental death after hearing testimony concerning injuries suffered by Mrs. G. A. R. Williams, famed as an aviatrix when she was Lady Heath, in a street car fall May 8.

Plymouth Resigns Undersecretaryship

LONDON (CP)—The Earl of Plymouth has resigned as an under-secretary of state for foreign affairs. His health was given as the reason in the announcement last night.

As Lord Plymouth was under-secretary in the House of Lords his position may be left vacant. Viscount Halifax, the Foreign Secretary, as a member of the Upper House is able to speak for the government in that chamber, while important announcements of foreign policy in the House of Commons usually are made either by Prime Minister Chamberlain or Richard Butler, foreign under secretary.

For some two years Lord Plymouth was chairman of the non-intervention committee which sought to quarantine Spain during the civil war to prevent the conflict from spreading. That committee now is disbanded.

NEW HOSPITAL FOR VANCOUVER

Expected M.P.'s Will Be Asked to Vote For Military Institution

OTTAWA (CP)—It is understood that $500,000 for a new military hospital at Vancouver is scheduled for presentation in a supplementary estimate soon to be tabled in Parliament.

Hon. C. G. Power, Minister of Pensions and National Health, said it would be decided if Vancouver was to have a new hospital when supplementaries were presented.

The hospital is scheduled to be built on the property on part of which is an old, stucco-covered boarding school that has been used as a military hospital since the Great War. The site was purchased by the government two years ago with the intention of putting a new building on it.

Typhoid Deaths

SELKIRK, Man. (CP)—The typhoid outbreak at Selkirk, 20 miles east of Winnipeg, claimed its second victim yesterday with the death of William Smagowaty, 30-year-old foundry worker.

Last week William Gemmell, also a foundry employee, died from effects of the fever, which has sent 33 persons to bed.

$20,000 Fire in Tacoma

TACOMA (AP)—Fire, started by a spark from a machine, did between $15,000 and $20,000 damage at the highly inflammable Pacific Match Company's plant here yesterday. The blaze, which lasted but 10 minutes, got its start in a resin bin.

RUINS HUNTED FOR TRACES OF MEN

Eight Unaccounted For
In Chicago After Five
Grain Elevators Burned

CHICAGO (AP)—An explosion of grain dust—fine particles of corn, rye and wheat—was cited today as the probable cause of the blasts and fire that levelled five grain elevators on Chicago's south side yesterday.

Meanwhile, searchers poked through the smoking debris for traces of eight men believed to have perished in the city's worst fire in five years. Twenty-three men, including 18 firemen, were injured.

Most estimates place the loss at $4,000,000. Market traders calculated a loss, in excess of $2,000,000 on the millions of bushels of grain stored in the elevators.

Three of the elevators were operated by the Rosenbaum Bros. Grain Company, and the other two by the Norris Grain Company. The total storage capacity exceeded 6,000,000 bushels.

The fire started when an explosion, believed caused by dust, occurred in elevator "A" of the Rosenbaum firm at 102nd Street and the Calumet River. The roof of the building, 146 feet high and covering an area of a half a square block, blew into the air. The storehouse became a geyser of flame.

Wood, metal, sparks and bricks rained down on employees scurrying for safety. Accompanied by muffled booms, like the rumbling of a volcano, flames burst out in elevators "B" and "C." The fiery tongues darted across a 30-foot-wide slip and ignited the two elevators of the Norris Grain Company. A quarter-mile sector was transformed quickly into an inferno.

Two fire tugs and a half dozen pieces of powerful apparatus poured water on the blazing skeletons while 50,000 spectators watched. Two barges, a dozen freight cars and five automobiles were burned or wrecked by collapsing walls.

U.S. FARM EXPORTS UP TO $828,000,000

Total in 1938 Largest
Seen Since 1930,
Washington Reports

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States farm exports during 1938 were valued by the Agricultural Department at $828,000,000, the largest since 1930.

Imports of competitive farm commodities were valued at $477,000,000, or 39 per cent less than 1937, and the lowest since 1934.

The report was given out as the U.S. Senate was winding up debate on the record-breaking $2,218,000,000 Agriculture Department appropriation bill.

The department said heavy yield of most farm products in 1938 and a slump in business activities operated to decrease agricultural imports.

The rise in exports, it said, was less than might have been expected to result from the sharp increase in American farm supplies. Three factors were cited as holding down foreign sales—a decline in foreign industrial activity, an increase in foreign production of farm commodities and abnormally high prices, compared with competitive growths, of American cotton.

$1,000,000,000 EACH MONTH FOR ARMS

BASEL (AP)—The Bank for International Settlements estimated today the world is spending $1,000,000,000 a month on armaments.

Based on statistics which the bank said were incomplete, but nevertheless showed the trend of defence expenditures, a resume said the total cost of war implements during 1938 had increased six times over that of 1928.

Citing Great Britain's 1939-1940 defence budget of at least $630,000,000 (currently about $2,948,400,000), the bank said it represented approximately 14 per cent of the national income.

TWO MEN RESCUED FROM SNOWSLIDE

Buried Four Hours
With Tractor and Sleigh
Near Stewart, B.C.

STEWART, B.C. (CP)—A rescue party early today dug through five feet of wet snow to save the lives of Bert Tronann and Sig Grotto, buried when their tractor and loaded freight sleigh were hit by a snowslide.

"Gee, boys, I'm glad to see you," said Grotto as the rescuers, led by Douglas Campbell, reached him after he had been buried four hours.

Word of the accident was brought to the Big Missouri mining camp, near this town at the head of Portland Canal, by Frank Carlington, who left his boot caught in the trapped machine and hurried five miles through snow, one foot naked.

Campbell, manager of the Big Missouri Mine and Salmon Gold property, operations connected by the road on which the tractor was running, left at once for the scene of the accident—49-mile hill.

Rescuers said air pockets around the buried tractor and sleigh enabled Tronann, tractor driver, and Grotto, his helper, to breathe while awaiting rescue.

Both men are in the hospital at the Big Missouri Mine, recovering from shock. They were not injured.

Chungking Raids Protested

TOKIO (AP)—Sir Robert Leslie Craigie, the British ambassador, delivered a protest Thursday to Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita against last week's bombings of Chungking, declaring the air raids were so conducted as to endanger the lives of British residents.

He protested also on what were termed humanitarian grounds. (Chinese have said about 1,500 persons were killed in the raids).

Educational Travel

UNLESS THE CANADIAN TRAVEL BUREAU at Ottawa and the United States Travel Bureau at Washington are all at sea in their calculations, the peoples of this continent will be meeting one another in larger numbers this year than ever before. There are two reasons for this optimistic outlook. One is the uncertainty of conditions in the Old World—not forgetting the premium both Canadian and United States dollars are at present enjoying abroad—and the other is the appeal to the spectacular which San Francisco and New York fairs hold out.

This Dominion and its neighbor on the south are suffering from an east and west complex. It is not a direct conflict of view in the national sense—either politically, socially, or economically. Its intangible existence is none the less a factor in the national life of both countries. It is a mixture of indifference and ignorance—cause and effect. International travel bureaus, of course, are giving of their best to encourage people in all walks of life to know this North American continent better, to find out for themselves by personal contact what the average person in Victoria, in New York, in Los Angeles, in Montreal, in Chicago, in Edmonton, and so on, is thinking about.

There is no disposition to discount the pictorial appeal by which publicity experts endeavor to entice the holidaymaker to visit this or that "unparalleled bit of scenery" or to breathe the atmosphere of this or that "Old World Spot." This is merely to emphasize the fact that there is nevertheless an opportunity for the propagandist selling scenery and environment to give his imagination a little rein—to bring within the ambit of his eloquence the wider significance and importance of personal contact between peoples of widely differing interests and points of view.

Some Mistake Somewhere?

ONE OF THOSE PERIODICAL "INTERESTING-IF-TRUE" dispatches came out of Bucharest this morning which imparts at least a touch of humor to the general European complexity. Briefly interpreted, it informs an unsuspecting and credulous world that Roumania, "apparently with Germany's acquiescence," will strengthen her military machine and develop her industries with a $15,000,000 loan of British capital.

All this may be perfectly understandable to the farseeing statesmen of London, Berlin, and Bucharest. To those who are unfamiliar with the intricacies of plush-curtain diplomacy, however, it appears to be somewhat enigmatical and peculiar. Moreover, according to a statement issued today by the Bank of International Settlements at Basle, the bank is now spending, at a conservative estimate, $1,000,000,000 a month on armaments. Why? Because two European totalitarian states—principally Germany—have torn up all their promises to behave, have turned themselves in a comparatively short time into the most formidably armed nations in the world, and have stolen thousands of square miles of territory without becoming embroiled in a serious war.

Now, then, at this stage, when Great Britain has permitted herself to incur a record bill for armaments in peacetime, consented to embark on a policy of conscription, and generally agreed to commitments which will hang round the taxpayers' necks for the next century, British money is being loaned to Roumania to increase and modernize that country's defences—"apparently with Germany's acquiescence." Well may some of us pinch ourselves to see if we are properly awake!

A Scientist's Prescription

FROM TIME TO TIME OUR SCIENTISTS give us ordinary people a few suggestions to ponder. An obscure item under a Capetown date line the other day quotes Dr. Helmuth Huserl, an eminent Viennese who has devoted a lifetime to health research, as authority for the contention that a seafaring life will prevent cancer, and that those who are domiciled in the Antarctic soon rid themselves of disease.

Dr. Huserl recently returned from the Antarctic in the whaling factory ship Sude-roy after a five-month voyage. He suggests that hospital ships should be sent "down south" with patients, who, in the invigoratingly clean Antarctic air, full of curative properties, will have the greatest chance of recovery. He spent his sojourn in the south as a ship's surgeon, but at the same time studied the cosmic rays and their refractions, the earth rays, and the origin of the whale species. Samples of whale embryos, different organs and oil were among the matter brought back for experimental purposes.

In a report which Dr. Huserl sent to Germany he states that the seamen who spend their lives at sea never contracted any form of cancer. This fact, he argues, would one day become one of the most important proofs of the genesis of cancer through the earth rays. In the same way rheumatic diseases were also less frequent and never became as serious as they did on land. The climate of the Antarctic is so healthy, he tells us, that contagious diseases, such as influenza, or the contraction of tetanus after wounds, actually do not occur.

All this is very interesting. The trouble with most of us is that we would find it somewhat difficult to follow the prescription which Dr. Huserl has written. Perhaps science will discover a way eventually to "capture" all the natural elements for popular "consumption"—and then we might be able to defy most of the ills to which man is heir.

Hospital Day

TODAY HAS BEEN SET ASIDE BY THE Canadian and American Hospital Associations as National Hospital Day. The object of its sponsors have in mind is as simple as the alphabet. It is to focus the attention of a preoccupied public on the community's most important humanitarian agency and economic asset—the hospital and everything for which the curative establishment stands. To take this and other public utilities for granted is a common attitude which may be likened to indifference—unwitting or assumed. But a sudden illness, a serious accident, perhaps, and then the hospital becomes a stern reality—a bright ray of hope. Expert service awaits. It is on call every minute of the day and night—continuous and unfailing in its understanding of all the demands that may be made on it. That is something to be remembered by everybody on this day and on all days of the year. The hospital, with its corps of capable nurses, its medical specialists, equipment ever keeping step with scientific progress, never fails.

"Too Gallic"

NO MORE OF "CYRANO DE BERGERAC" for Prague; the Nazi overlords have forbidden its performance. They have decided that Rostand's play is altogether "too Gallic." Small wonder that its Gallicism is galling to the disciples of Hitlerism. For does not Cyrano's definition of what seems to be the good life savor too much of that rugged individualism which is the direct antithesis of the Nazi creed? It goes:

"To sing, to dream, to laugh, to loaf, to be alone and free, and to have eyes that look squarely and a voice that rings true; to wear one's hat backwards if he chooses, and to fight a duel or write a sonnet for a yes or a no! To labor for that heart's-dearest journey to the moon without a thought of fortune or glory. . . . Then, if even to some small extent he triumphs, he need render no jot of his glory to Caesar, but keep it all for his own."

"Too Gallic" may be sufficient to earn the "Verboten" label. We suspect it was far from the real objection. Cyrano's philosophy would appear to be the personification of the dignity of man—in contradistinction with the regimented mortal who must needs keep step with the authoritarian concept of modern physical and mental requirements.

Safety of the Railways

SO MUCH ATTENTION HAS BEEN focused in recent years on the safety of the highways and the magnificent accomplishments that have been made in that field, that it is a pleasant surprise to learn that the railways are also being made safer.

The best general safety record in 50 years was established by the United States Railroads in 1938, according to J. J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads. The number of train accidents in proportion to miles run was the lowest on record, and the actual number of accidents was a third less than in 1937. Fatalities to employees were cut from 666 in 1937 to 479 in 1938. Passenger fatalities were up 52 in 1938 as compared to three in 1937. In the last year there were two serious wrecks. Grade-crossing accidents were materially reduced.

One way of offsetting the falling birth rate is to stop killing so many people after they are born. It is good to know that the railways are doing their share to supplement the fine achievements of the international highway safety campaign.

They say an automobile, invented and built in 1903, is still running. Yes, we know, it's in front of us on the highway every Sunday.

BARTERING RAW MATERIALS

From the Magazine of Wall Street
Although the reciprocal trade program so patiently nursed by Secretary of State Hull is sound in principle, under present disturbed world conditions there can be no valid objection to the proposed barter of 2,000,000 bales of government-owned cotton and 100,000,000 bushels of government-owned wheat for reserve supplies of rubber and tin.

The plan presents some practical problems, however, both from our point of view and even more so from the point of view of the British, Dutch and Belgian interests which would supply the rubber and tin. At both ends of the deal the materials should be impounded as war reserves under safeguards to prevent disruption of normal trade channels so far as possible. Senator Byrnes, sponsor of the idea, proposes that the supplies be impounded for five years unless market prices rise above specified levels in the interim. It would be wiser to provide for their release only in event of war, since the purpose is to set up war reserves, and since prices conceivably could rise for reasons other than war.

There is no use blinking the fact that we have more to gain from this plan than the countries which dominate rubber and tin production. We have tremendously burdened some stocks of cotton and wheat in government hands. There are no similarly excessive stocks of rubber and tin overhanging the world markets, for cartel control of the output of these materials in recent years has been notably successful. It takes two to make a deal. In this case the other side may insist on terms and conditions that Senator Byrnes has not contemplated. Yet the basic economic fact is that they need cotton and wheat and we need rubber and tin. Why not swap on fair terms?

REGISTER OF PIGEONS

SOME WEEKS AGO I mentioned in this letter that the Royal Air Force was planning to make greater use of carrier pigeons. Now it is revealed that the R.A.F. is enlisting the help of pigeon fanciers all over the country in the compilation of a national register of carrier pigeons for use in time of war.

During the September crisis thousands of fanciers offered their services to the Air Ministry. All the offers were filed, so that the nucleus of a national register already exists.

So great is the desire of pigeon owners to place their birds at the disposal of the government that it is anticipated that about 500,000 pigeons—five times as many as were used in the Great War—will play their part in the scheme of national defence. Details of the national pigeon service are now being worked out by the Air Ministry and organizations of pigeon owners.

The principal use of pigeons in war time would be to supplement the R.A.F. wireless system. Bombers would carry pigeons which could fly back with messages should the aircraft's wireless system be put out of order.

Since the war the R.A.F. has maintained a pigeon service of its own, with four lofts for training and breeding—two in England and two overseas. The present service, however, is very small and will be expanded out of all recognition under the new scheme.

90 MILES PER HOUR

THE LAST OCCASION on which pigeons saved life in the forces was in the summer of 1938, when a detachment of South Waziristan Scouts was surrounded and cut off by tribal forces on the Northwest Frontier. A pigeon was released with a message asking for help, and in a short time R.A.F. machines were on their way to the rescue of the beleaguered force.

Even in these mechanical days the pigeon post, one of the oldest means of communication known to man, still has its uses.

A London evening newspaper sends photographic negatives from football matches to its Fleet Street offices by carrier pigeon, thus avoiding traffic jams.

Pigeons are speedy, too. With a moderate tail wind a good bird will do 1,600 yards per minute for 300 miles. In exceptionally favorable conditions speeds of over a mile a minute have been known, and the highest speed ever claimed was a mile and a half a minute over 300 miles.

IF BOMBERS CAME

UNTIL QUITE RECENTLY there was a natural dread of the "air menace"—particularly in London. Now this dread is being replaced by a feeling almost approaching confidence.

Encouraging assurances regarding this country's defence against air attack were given this week by Air Chief Marshal Sir Hugh C. T. Dowding, Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief Fighter Command, in a speech at Edinburgh.

"The home defence fighter with the latest equipment has an enormous advantage over the Continental bomber both morally and materially," he said.

"The defence of this country will be ensured by the moral effect on the enemy of the appalling casualties he will suffer in the course of his attacks—casualties not only from fighters, although fighters must always be the first line of defence—but from the anti-aircraft artillery, which has made enormous progress in the last few years, both in the material with which they are equipped and in the skill with which they use their equipment."

Dowding declared that anybody who retained any sort of wartime contempt for the effect of anti-aircraft fire was due for a rude awakening.

"SOMETHING OTHERS HAVEN'T GOT"

HE ASKED HIS AUDIENCE to remember that the casualties to the enemy aircraft attacking this country would not all be obvious to observers here.

"Remember that he has to fly home across a great expanse of sea and that quite a small hole in the petrol tank or oil tank, of which he may not be aware, will be sufficient to prevent his getting home."

"In war the general moral effect comes in airplanes leaving their aerodromes day after day and disappearing. And nobody knows what has happened. All that is known is that they never come back. The cumulative effect of that is really devastating on an air force."

I cannot go into details, chiefly on account of secrecy," he concluded, "but I think I can put the matter in a nutshell by saying that both our bombers and fighters have 'that little something which others haven't got.'"

SPRING HATS A LA MODE

TWO PICTURES COME FROM GERMAN, telling a story. One is that a young woman sporting the latest mode for millinery in that country. It is a steel helmet for protection against explosives and debris.

The other is that of a young mother carrying in one hand a small cradle like a basket. It is completely covered by an airtight rubber tarpaulin; the tiny life within is supported by a bellows-pump under the other arm of the mother, which supplies gas-filtered air to the covered basket-cradle.

"Rock-a-bye, baby, in your tight box, While from the bombs the whole city rocks."

If the pump fails, your heart cannot beat. Nevertheless, the contrivance was neat."

That might be a new European cradle song, except that behind her gas mask the mother could not sing it, and tucked into its airtight pre-casket, baby could not hear it.

TOMORROW'S TAG DAY

To the Editor:—Tomorrow, Saturday, May 13, there will be a tag day for the Sir Mathew Baillie Begbie Chapter of the I.O.D.E. to obtain funds for the distribution of cod liver oil to the underprivileged of our community. This service, which cannot be commended too highly, is obtainable either through the secretary of the chapter, Mrs. Wingate, or through the Victorian Order of Nurses, and it is hoped that the tag day will result in a substantial addition to this deserving fund.

"THE CROWDS QUESTION"

To the Editor:—Your editorial of the May 10, under the above heading, finds a response in the minds of all thoughtful citizens, but unfortunately we cannot expect the whole population to be thoughtful.

You have undoubtedly hit on the point of greatest danger, which is at Beacon Hill, where a down-grade would give impetus to a surging crowd.

There are limits to the safeguards which may be taken by police and other officials. Few people in Victoria know the possibilities for harm which lie in an excited crowd.

If you, sir, and others who can reach the general public, can spread the gospel of individual responsibility and discipline, you will perform a great public service—perhaps save lives.

TICKER-TAPE AND CONFETTI

From Toronto Telegram

Toronto has, of late years, borrowed from across the line the reprehensible fashion of throwing ticker-tape and confetti from the upper windows of office buildings to greet distinguished visitors who are passing in the street below. Apart from the bedraggled and littered aspect given to the streets by this habit, it has its element of danger. It is recalled that a distinguished visitor to New York on a recent occasion afterwards carried his arm in a sling as a result of some enthusiastic having chucked a telephone book out of a window without having bothered to tear it up into improvised confetti.

It would be well for the authorities who have charge of local arrangements in connection with the visit of the King and Queen to warn the public generally that throwing things out of windows is not recognized as an approved method of welcome. Co-operation to abstain from the practice should be secured. If spectators feel the urge to throw something, let them throw a salvo of cheers as the Royal pair pass.

FROM A WEED

From New York Post

Shepherd's curse doesn't appear at flower shows. It is not, as blooms go, a flower at all. Millions have seen it spread over American countryside, and many have asked the name of its white flowers only to be told: "It's just a weed."

From this weed science now has obtained a chemical which checks bleeding, a chemical which even has worked with hemophiliacs—persons who, like the Spanish Bourbons, are in constant danger of bleeding to death from the slightest cut because their blood lacks the power to clot and heal.

Still more important is the value of the new discovery to surgery. It makes possible almost bloodless operations. Not on theory, but upon test. The discovery, by two young Philadelphia physicians—Dr. Arthur Steinberg and Dr. William R. Brown—was first told publicly at Saturday at a meeting of the American Physiological Society in Toronto. But its disclosure followed four years of extensive experiment and trial, and a remarkable record of success.

MAKING A GOOD STORY

From Ottawa Journal

Lord Tweedsmuir, whose campaign by precept and example for the use of pure English in the written and spoken word is not the least of his services to Canada, had something to say in a recent speech about exaggeration in newspaper stories. He mentioned particularly the abuse of the word "clash" in parliamentary reports and the Journal, as one of many offenders, admits some justice in his statement. We are told in headlines and lead of a "clash"—English newspapers call it a "scene"—between, perhaps Mr. King and Dr. Manion, and we read on for the story detail—only to find nothing more than a very mild interchange.

And yet one can understand the reporter's point of view. Every news story in a sense competes with every other news story for the reader's attention. The man who spends hours of the day sitting in with the House of Commons knows he is competing with the latest pronouncements of the world figures who make war and peace, the newest catastrophes,

Condemned Man Seeks Prayers

Wright's Appeal From Murder Conviction
Completed Here

With a plea to churches to continue prayers for him, R. A. Wright, sentenced to be hanged on June 16 for the January 28 murder of Mrs. Dulcie Hanham on Colville Road extension, left the courthouse here yesterday at the completion of his appeal from conviction.

Judgment, the Chief Justice of British Columbia indicated, would be handed down at the beginning of the court's next sitting in Vancouver on Tuesday.

"I wish you would ask the churches to continue prayer. I've appreciated what they've done very much," Wright said to a reporter as he left the building under escort.

The appeal concluded shortly after resumption of the hearing following the luncheon adjournment.

Stuart Henderson, counsel for the appellant, completed his reply to points raised by J. B. Clearhue, crown respondent.

"I ask that the verdict be set aside because it was perverse, or failing that, I ask for a new trial," Mr. Henderson stated in conclusion.

Embargo Council
Asks Support of
R. W. Mayhew, M.P.

At a meeting of the Embargo Council of Victoria held in the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday, a resolution was passed directing that a night letter be sent by that organization to R. W. Mayhew, M.P., at Ottawa, as follows: "The Embargo Council of Victoria, representing 28,000 citizens, requests your good office to protest to the government of Canada against the shipping of war materials to aggressor nations. We strongly protest the indirect participation of this country in the ruthless bombing of unfortified towns and defenceless civilians in China. We urge that you ascertain the attitude and policy of the government in this matter and notify us."

Mrs. John Hall, president of Rockland Park W.C.T.U., offered the support of the 200 members of the W.C.T.U. to conduct a house-to-house drive to obtain further signatures to the embargo petitions in co-operation with the embargo committee. The results so far having shown that the vast majority of the people here favor this movement as an effective and peaceful means to stop war, 25,000 names are anticipated. Organizations and individuals wishing to assist with this drive are requested to phone Mrs. John Hall, G 6336.

The boycott committee deplored the fact that many of the flags and decorations being used and offered for sale in connection with the Royal Visit were made in countries now participating in ruthless aggression, and outlined plans to reach the buying public with an appeal that goods produced in such countries be not purchased.

To Decorate Sailors' Home Appropriately

Plans for decorating the Connaught Seamen's Institute for the visit of Their Majesties the King and Queen were discussed at the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Guild, held at the institute yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Vernon Thomson, president, in the chair. Mrs. Albert Griffiths was thanked for her gift of a new flag for the institute, and G. Hibberd, manager, asked for donations of plants for the outside grounds, in order that they should present an attractive appearance for the Royal visitors.

It was decided to hold a campaign for funds to carry on the work of the institute, and three members offered their services for canvassing. Mrs. J. W. Church and Mrs. Stuart Robertson were thanked for the gifts of two large framed photographs of Their Majesties, which will be hung in the sitting-room and billiard-room.

Mrs. J. Quinn reported having visited sick sailors during the month, and Mrs. J. P. Inmore reported on visits to St. Joseph's Hospital and Vernon Villa. Rev. A. E. Hendy, chaplain, was present at the meeting, and announced he had visited the hospitals and ships. Miss deTraford and her wool-workers are still continuing their work.

Ships visited during the month numbered 31; men registered, 176; cadets, 48; letters posted, 49; literature, 60, and beds, 2. Tea was served after the meeting by Mrs. J. D. W. Burnett and Mrs. Wentworth Bell.

Senior 'Y' Girls Hostesses at Banquet

"The Builders" Theme; Fine Address By Mrs. W. E. Stevenson

"The Builders" was the appropriate theme of the annual spring banquet of the Senior Club Girls of the Y.W.C.A. last night, the affair being most attractively arranged. In addition to a large gathering of members, a number of specially-invited guests were seated at the prettily-decorated tables.

HOW TO BUILD

Some excellent advice on how to build towards a better social order was given in a challenging address by Mrs. W. E. Stevenson, a member of the board and formerly of the Detroit Y.W.C.A.

The speaker touched upon the many advantages, in the way of a liberal knowledge, freedom of education and opportunity, open to young people today. But there was a tendency to take short cuts, to accept the line of least resistance, with the result that many young people were unable to find their place in life, she said.

Declaring that the quitters of life were largely among the young people, Mrs. Stevenson-challenged them to draw upon their courage to see life through and not to be content to accept things as they are. The importance of playing one's part with faith, courage and proper grace, and the necessity of building good habits of health, tolerance and better understanding were emphasized by the speaker in closing.

WINNING TABLES

Red, white and blue was the color scheme of the head table, arranged with flowers, ivory tapers in crystal holders and blue streamers. The club groups had decorated their tables in keeping with the banquet theme, "The Builders," and the judges were Dr. Olga Jardine, Mrs. B. S. Heisterman and Miss Margaret Clay.

The silver Challenge Cup was awarded to the "Business Girls' Club" for their table in blue and white color scheme with a may-pole, from which extended blue ribbons, tied with posies of narcissi and bearing cards with the "Builders" ideals.

The second prize was won by the Live Y-ers Group, whose table was centred with a model castle built on a rock, each of the towers being named after one of the "Builders" virtues. Each guest's place was marked by a nosegay of lily of the valley and a "building stone."

THE PROGRAM

Miss Elsie Peters was chairman and Rev. J. L. W. McLeish said grace. Miss Dorothy Beech proposed the toast to "The King" and the National Anthem was sung, then all joined in a lively sing-song, with Miss Jean Routley at the piano. Miss Peters, president of the Senior Council, welcomed the guests.

Greetings from the Hi-Y Group, members of which assisted in serving the repast, were extended by Miss Gwynned Thomas, and Miss Dorothy Beech gave a comprehensive outline of the work of the girls' groups during the year.

Miss Ruth Curtis gave readings, and the regional delegates presented an amusing skit, "Ferdinand the Bull." "The Building Song" was sung by the guests.

ST. MARTIN'S A.Y.P.A.

This evening at 8.30 in the Parish Hall, St. Martin's A.Y.P.A. will present Douglas Plintoff in an interesting and amusing picture show never before shown in Victoria.

Among visitors to the British Columbia exhibit at the Golden Gate Fair, San Francisco, during the past few days were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tysoe, Leonard Duckworth, Mr. and Mrs. C. Richards, Mrs. L. Barette, Mr. and Mrs. Heathcote, Hon. W. C. Simmonds, Miss Phyllis Williams, Miss Mary Grouche, J. A. Lukey, F. Tysoe, A. W. Millar, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pendergast, J. A. Pearce, R. C. Parberg, Fred Taylor, Mr. Morris, Mrs. John Kyle, A. Ferris, Miss Elsie Thomson, Mrs. T. Thompson, C. G. Muir, Harold Cotton and Frank Bickford, all of Victoria, B.C., and Miss Mary Cummins of Duncan, B.C.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will love you. But if you are cross, listless and tired, men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls. When they go to parties they want girls along who are full of pep.

So if you need a good general system, remember for 3 generations one woman has told another how to go "peppy" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps build up more physical resistance and thus aids in giving you more pep and interest in life.

You'll find Pinkham's Compound WILL WORK TRYING!

Mrs. Raymond Francis Whellams, the former Miss Edith Norma Price, whose marriage took place at St. Mary's, Oak Bay, on Wednesday.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Captain O. Cox, Union Club, will leave on Sunday for England to spend the next three months.

Mr. Leo Heit of Toronto spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. D. McMillan, Foul Bay Road, and left last night for the east.

Mrs. A. E. Hodgins, Fairfield Road, is visiting Vancouver with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hodgins.

Mrs. J. O. Lea of Vancouver, who has been visiting Dr. Olga Jardine, Despard Avenue, is now staying with Mrs. F. F. Curtis, Prospect Place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Soby of Herschell, who have been spending the last few months in Victoria, have left for their home in Saskatchewan.

Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Parberry of Saanichton have returned home after visiting points in southern California and attending the fair at San Francisco.

Mrs. Vera Leary of Duluth, Wis., who has been visiting in Victoria with Mr. and Mrs. William Palliser, Qu'Appelle Street, has returned to her home in the east.

Dr. and Mrs. I. McT. Cowan, Vancouver Street, will leave for Vancouver tonight, to attend the marriage on Monday of Dr. Wessie Tipping, French professor of the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, and Dr. Kay Lamb of Victoria.

Major Herbert Oliver of Hongkong is sailing from China this week for Victoria to join his wife and daughter, Elizabeth, who arrived recently with her father, Mr. F. W. Jones, Rockland Avenue, from the Orient. Major and Mrs. Oliver will remain in Victoria until September.

Miss Kitty Cave entertained the members of the Comitas Club at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Ford, Dalhousie Street, on Wednesday evening. Mrs. P. B. Seurrah, the speaker, gave an interesting talk on the origin and development of the Fairbridge Farm Schools. Those present were Mrs. R. C. Newby, Mrs. W. A. Butler, Mrs. A. Leason and the Misses Pat Holden, Enid McConnell, Verna Beck, Olive and Louise Ormond, Mildred Baxandall, Alma Gurion, Kitty Cave and Rene McHutchon. Guests were Mrs. G. R. Ford, Mrs. Gibb of Honolulu, Mrs. H. Parfitt and Miss A. Andrew.

At the home of Brigadier and Mrs. J. C. Stewart, Work Point Barracks, on Wednesday afternoon, a silver tea was held under the auspices of St. Paul's W.A. After admiring the beautiful gardens, the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. A. Bischlager in the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Silburn, the president. The tea table was beautifully decorated, and Mrs. Carver and Mrs. Harvey Dobson, Jr. poured tea. Mrs. Bischlager presented Mrs. Stewart with a lovely bouquet of spring flowers on behalf of the W.A., in appreciation of her kindness. The tea was convened by Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Bennetts, Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Jubb assisted with the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. D. Pemberton, Foul Bay Road, who have been on a trip to California for the last few weeks, have returned home. They travelled south by motor through the Grand Canyon.

Mrs. W. B. Wilson was a tea hostess this afternoon, entertaining a number of friends at her home on Regent's Place. The rooms were effectively arranged with tulips and other early summer flowers.

Miss Dyanwen Evans, who will leave on Monday for London, England, to train as a nurse, was the guest of honor at a farewell tea given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans, 1736 Duchess Street, when Mrs. G. Strawford, and the Misses I. Truran and Gertiana Evans were joint hostesses. Miss Evans was presented with a number of "bon voyage" gifts, concealed in a box daintily decorated in pink and green. Games were enjoyed. The invited guests included: Mesdames J. D. Evans, V. Taylor, R. Jones, J. A. Longfield, E. L. Aubel, G. Burke, J. Hood, W. Walker, F. Smith, J. E. Glover, Misses D. Evans, V. Wilson, M. Jones, D. Huffman, K. Allison, E. and E. Hood, M. Martin and A. Kelly. Miss Evans was also the guest of honor when Mrs. E. L. Aubel, Duchess Street, entertained at the tea hour on Sunday afternoon last.

Miss Doreen Wheeler, who is to be married in June, was feted at a shower given the Misses Helen Wheeler and Kay Gosnell last evening at Miss Wheeler's home on Hillside Avenue. Tulips and sweet peas decorated the rooms, and on her arrival the bride-to-be was given a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and lily of the valley. The many attractive gifts were concealed in a wishing well in the living room, and after they were opened games were played. Mrs. P. Wheeler presided at the supper table, which was centred with tulips and sweet peas. The invited guests were Mrs. H. Davis, Mrs. C. Curruet, Mrs. J. Wormald, Mrs. A. Dunaway, Mrs. J. Whitaker, Mrs. P. Parkes, Mrs. A. Duckworth, Mrs. E. Johnson, Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. N. McKay, Mrs. G. Giffin, Mrs. P. Wheeler, Mrs. G. Harknett, and Misses Doreen Wheeler, Verna Barnes, Vivian Harknett, Irene Davis, Edith Whittaker and Marjorie Barnes.

Twenty-four tables were in play in the dining-room of David Spencer Limited yesterday afternoon, when the Mary Croft Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.D.E., held a most successful bridge tea. In addition to the players, a number of guests came in at the tea hour, while several members arranged tables in their homes to swell the receipts. Iceland poppies were the attractive decoration on the head table, at which Mrs. Kyrle C. Symons, Municipal regent, and Mrs. A. Youngman presided. Mrs. J. T. Jones, the regent, conveyed the affair, assisted by Mrs. G. H. Sedger and Mrs. E. V. Finland. Mrs. M. Ryley had charge of the receipts, which will go towards the chapter's fund for milk for under-nourished children at the Lampson Street School and

FIGOTT-PARKER

The marriage was solemnized last night at 8 in the chapel of Christ Church Cathedral of Mrs. Marion Painton Parker, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. Painton of Longworth, Berks, England, and Charles H. Pigott, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pigott, Sherringham, Norfolk, Eng. Rev. Canon S. J. Wickens officiated.

Mr. Robert Jones gave the bride away and Mr. Maurice Pigott supported the groom. The bride, who had been a resident of Edmonton for a number of years, came to Victoria some months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Pigott will make their home at 1623 Cook Street.

JOHNSTON-BLYTHE

DUNCAN—St. Peter's Church, Quamichan, was beautifully decorated by members of the W.A. yesterday morning when Ellen Kate (Nell), only daughter of Mrs. W. E. Blythe and the late W. E. Blythe, Maple Bay Road, became the bride of John Philip Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnston, Whitstable, Kent, England. Rev. T. M. Hughes was the officiating clergyman, and the service was choral, with Mr. E. C. Trench at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her godfather, Mr. T. A. Wood, wore a dress of blue triple sheer, with burned straw hat and matching accessories. She was unattended, and Major A. B. Slee supported the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party returned to the home of the bride's mother, but no formal reception was held. For traveling the bride wore a suit of navy blue with matching accessories, and after a honeymoon spent on the mainland, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at Quamichan Lake.

Junior Catholics Held Membership Tea

The Junior Catholic Women's League held their annual membership and silver tea at the home of Miss Mary Comerford, Esquimalt Road. Many friends and new members were present. Among the guests were Bishop John C. Cody, Msgr. A. G. Baker, Rev. F. A. B. Wood, Mrs. Blair Reid, Diocesan President; Miss H. O'Brien, Social Service Conventer and Mrs. Temple, president of the Esquimalt sub-division. During the afternoon the guests were entertained by a program arranged by Miss Nellie Cannon, including solos by Miss Elaine Basanta accompanied by Miss Jean Adams and Miss Patricia Comerford accompanied by Miss Wanda Spencer, who also rendered piano selections. A recitation was given by Mrs. Mary Black. The tea table centred with a silver basket of yellow tulips and blue forget-me-nots was presided over by Mrs. John M. Culliford and Miss Kathleen Nesbitt. Mrs. Charles E. Rivers, the president, received the guests.

British Schoolgirls To Visit Victoria

TORONTO (CP)—Lillian Watson, secretary of the Overseas Education League of Canada, announced today plans were complete for a Canadian tour this summer of 100 girls from English and Scottish schools. The group will include two cricket teams from Harrogate Ladies' College, Yorkshire, and Rodean Ladies' College near Brighton.

A first group of approximately 70 will sail from Liverpool July 28, arriving at Quebec August 5. The remainder leave August 5, arriving at Quebec August 10. The larger group will visit Victoria, Vancouver and Nelson, B.C.

Royal Oak Women's Institute met in the Community Hall yesterday afternoon, the president, Miss K. Oldfield, in the chair. In tribute to the memory of Mrs. J. G. Nicholson, the meeting opened with a moment's silence. Mrs. A. P. Hobbs, convener of the arts and crafts committee, was thanked for the honor of winning the cup for the institute display at the Victoria Spring Flower Show. Miss Eva Phillips reported the mortgage objective had been reached. A supper and program will be held, with Mrs. A. Rankin and Mrs. T. T. Hutchison as conveners, Wednesday, June 14, to mark the burning of the mortgage. An Empire tea, with 500 in the evening, will be held Wednesday, June 7, at 3, the home economics committee in charge. A garden party will be held at the home of Mrs. H. W. Bassett on June 28. Final arrangements for the annual picnic will be completed at the June meeting. A ga was served by the public health and child welfare committee.

Florence Nightingale Gift Still in Use

ELORA, Ont. (CP)—Parishioners at the little church of St. John the Evangelist here still partake of Holy Communion from the silver set presented by Florence Nightingale to Rev. John Smithurst, the cousin whom her family refused to let her marry.

Inscribed on the paten are these words in Latin: "Acting for someone else, Ebenezer Hall gives this set of Communion to Rev. John Smithurst, a very dear friend, in grateful recognition of many kindnesses, A.D. 1852." The "someone else" was Florence Nightingale, the Lady with the Lamp whose ministrations in the Crimean War created the nursing profession.

For six years, after spending 12 years as head of the mission at Fort Garry, now Winnipeg, Mr. Smithurst was rector of St. John's. He died here in 1869 at the age of 57 and was buried in St. John's Cemetery.

Born in England, he and Florence Nightingale made known their love to a startled family at Lea Hurst, Devon, when young Smithurst was 29. Their engagement was forbidden.

Miss Dwywen Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans, 1736 Duchess Street, who will leave on Monday for London, England, to train as a nurse under the London County Council. Possessor of a charming voice, Miss Evans won the first prizes in the Welsh class in the recent Music Festival and was second in the mezzo-soprano class.

Native Daughters Install Officers

Native Daughters of British Columbia, Post No. 3, met on Wednesday evening in the K. of C. Hall, with the chief factor, Mrs. R. G. Creech, presiding.

Following the business meeting, the installation of officers for the ensuing year took place when the following were installed: Chief factor, Mrs. J. King; past chief factor, Mrs. R. G. Creech; chaplain, Mrs. L. Lorimer; secretary, Mrs. F. Webb; assistant secretary, Mrs. M. Mitchell; treasurer, Miss M. Gillies; chief guide, Mrs. R. Cruickshank; assistant guide, Mrs. J. Mackintosh; inner sentinel, Mrs. A. Kinsman; outer sentinel, Mrs. G. Wight; historian, Mrs. H. A. Beckwith; trustee, Mrs. J. Brown; auditor, Miss L. Smethurst.

Reports were given on the Women's Work Room, Local Council of Women, B.C. Historical Society, also on the recent rummage sale, which proved quite successful.

Mrs. C. Davies announced the Grand Post convention expenses in Victoria in April, and Mrs. R. G. Creech gave a very interesting report on the sessions.

It was decided to hold a social evening on May 17, and Mrs. A. Kinsman kindly offered her home for this occasion. Mrs. R. Cruickshank, Mrs. J. Mackintosh and Mrs. J. King offered to act as hostesses.

Miss J. Lorimer acted as installing officer during the installation ceremony and Mrs. C. Davies and Miss E. Neelands were appointed deputies.

Mrs. R. G. Creech, on retiring from the chair, presented a charming bouquet to Mrs. J. King, the new chief factor, and Mrs. R. G. Creech was the recipient of charming flowers from Mrs. King.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. T. C. Hubbard, and Mrs. M. Mitchell received the special prize.

The members decided to hold a home cooking stall under the patronage of Mrs. T. Lorimer, with the assistance of Mrs. J. King, Mrs. J. C. Newbury, Mrs. A. Kinsman and Mrs. T. C. Hubbard.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served, members of the Past Factor's Club acting as hostesses. The tea table was artistically arranged with red and yellow tulips and red crepe paper tulip place-cards.

Mrs. A. W. Carter handed in a number of woolen articles she had knitted for charitable purposes.

Ancient Gift of Bread

UFTON NERVET, Eng. — Villagers of Ufton Nervet, near Reading, have received gifts of bread under a trust established in 1581 by Lady Mervyn, lady of the manor.

WOOTTON, Eng. — Mrs. Clara Adcock, 105, rode in an airplane before riding in a motor car, and has just cut a tooth. She pulled it out because "it was painful coming through," she said.

Religious Training In Schools Urged By Bishop

In Address Before Mothers' Union Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Victoria Diocesan Mothers' Union was held on Wednesday afternoon in the Memorial Hall when there was an excellent attendance including several members from the Comex branch.

Reports on the year's activities were read by the secretary, treasurer, link secretary, literary secretary, invalid and mail branch secretary and by the enrolling members of each branch, all showing satisfactory progress during the past year.

BISHOP SPEAKS

Bishop Sexton gave a comprehensive address on the need of religious training in the schools, pointing out that the main object of education should be the development of good, sound principles. At all times the welfare of the country depends on the character of its citizens. Secular education had hitherto been relied upon to produce good, moral subjects but it left untouched and unguarded the most powerful side of character, he said. In order to develop this along the right lines Christian teaching must be recognized as an integral part of education.

There is no provision for religious training in the schools of B.C. and general apathy and lack of unanimity make things difficult for those who are working towards it, claimed the Bishop as he urged the Mothers' Union members to do their share to influence others by their own personal efforts.

More interested support of the Sunday school by post would bring religious education to an increasing number of isolated families and a deeper spiritual influence in the home would greatly assist in the formation of good, sound character, he said in closing.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Mrs. M. M. Beasley expressed the thanks of the members to the Bishop. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. M. M. Beasley; secretary, Mrs. Blyth; publicity secretary, Mrs. E. O. Archer; link secretary, Mrs. Goward; treasurer, Mrs. Lane; invalid and mail branch secretary, Mrs. Greenwood; literature secretary, Mrs. Oliver. Mrs. Brake was made permanent honorary vice-president.

The president then spoke briefly of the plans for participation in the coming Royal Visit, Her Majesty the Queen being the Royal patroness of the organization.

The meeting was adjourned after a few words by Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunn and tea was served by Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. W. Finmore and other helpers.

Clubwomen's News

The annual meeting of the University Women's Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 at the home of Mrs. I. McAskill, Helmsden Road. Members wishing transportation are requested to be at the Y.W.C.A. not later than 2.15.

Mrs. C. W. Hawkins, president of the Women's Guild of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, was hostess at tea yesterday afternoon at her home, 788 Hillside Avenue, the guests being members of Group 12. Plans were made for an apron sale at the silver tea on June 17 in the church lecture room.

The regular monthly meeting of the Victoria Credit Women's Breakfast Club was held Wednesday morning at 7 at the Dominion Hotel, with Miss Anita Davis, president, in the chair. The principal business was the nominating of officers for next year's executive, the election taking place at the next regular meeting. An amendment to the constitution was discussed and suggestions made for a tea in the near future. Miss Mollie Lalay gave an interesting reading in which she made several helpful suggestions.

STOMACH PAINS Can Be Beaten

What can you do about those nagging, biting stomach pains and those chronic attacks of indigestion? The answer a stomach specialist would give you is: "Neutralize excess acidity. Protect your inflamed stomach walls with a soothing coating." And he would prescribe exactly those four powerful alkalies which are perfectly balanced in Maclean Brand Stomach Powder.

So, if you are a stomach sufferer, fearful of food because of pains of gastritis or indigestion, learn how highly effective this treatment is. Get a bottle of Maclean Brand Stomach Powder from your druggist. In almost every case of stomach trouble, relief from pain comes quickly. And that is only the beginning. As the powerful alkalies in Maclean Brand Stomach Powder coat the inflamed stomach walls, the power of full digestion is stimulated. You find you can eat and enjoy meals free from fear. Get a bottle—and look for the signature "Alex. C. Maclean." Maclean Brand Stomach Powder is only genuine if this signature appears on both bottle and carton. Sold only in bottles in cartons, 75c. VICTORIA WEST PUPILS' CONCERT

Well-varied Program Enjoyed By Large Audience

Pupils of the Victoria West School last night presented an extremely entertaining program at the school to a large audience which enjoyed every moment of the varied and always interesting fare.

One of the highlights of the program was the excellent chorus work of the various grades and especially of the composite choir under the direction of Miss McCall. This choir closed the program with some songs from the British Isles. Their appearance on stage with their song subjects set in a frame spotted with light was extremely pleasing. The audience joined with them in singing "Land of Hope and Glory" as the picture of the Queen was spotted in the frame.

Some excellent dances were seen with the fast-moving Bumpkin reel of the senior girls probably the favorite of the evening. These were directed by Misses Wood and Armstrong.

The humor of the evening was in most capable hands. The policemen's chorus, with "Red" Murrell as the go-getter sergeant, was a great favorite. This number was done with spirit and zest.

A real treat for all was the Hill-Billy number with Albert Denoni starring with his excellent work on the piano-accompaniment, Pete Willis and Jim Bouffey as the old "moke" of the stranded southerner, played by Art Holland. There was some good music and fun in this number and the girls added much to the scene with two dances, a tap and the popular Arkansas Traveller.

Displaying considerable histrionic ability and an assurance not usual, Norine Moore, Margaret Loudoun, Joe Richards, Duncan Bishop, Margaret Hiquet and Billy Murrell combined in presenting a most entertaining play. There was no scenery and very few properties and these were placed in position when and where needed by the ever-present property man. But the absence of such things was unnoticed as the players took us on the happy journey in their broken down old car. It was great fun.

A short number written by Barbara Warner and featuring some low life from Old London as a prelude to the Lambeth walk, was well done, and would have been much longer if the audience had had their way.

Noreen Weismuller and Joy Collins played the test piece for pianoforte duet for which they were awarded first place at the recent musical festival.

The numbers were announced pleasingly and efficiently by Norah Clarke. During the evening H. Anscomb, M.P.P., presented a cup to the school which will be used to encourage dramatic art among the pupils. He also presented, on behalf of an anonymous donor, a beautiful cup case, in making the presentations, Mr. Anscomb complimented the school on the excellence of the entertainment and commented favorably on the scope afforded to the schools to develop cultural activities such as music, dancing and drama.

The program will be repeated this evening.

The Esquimalt Catholic Women's League held their membership tea in the Queen of Peace Hall on Wednesday with a good attendance and several new members. Artists from St. Ann's Academy rendered solos. Invited guests included Monsignor Baker and presidents of other subdivisions. Rev. Fr. Wood addressed the gathering on church work by the laity. Decorations were carried out in the league colors, the tea tables being covered with a lace cloth, centred with a silver basket filled with tulips and irises. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. O'Leary and Mrs. Colbert. Mrs. Temple, the president, received the guests.

By PETE SALLAWAY

FRED APOSTOLI believes boxing fans are going to see Joe Louis and Maxie Adelbert Baer fight for the world heavyweight boxing championship again in September. "Baer will knock out Lou Nova in six or seven rounds at Yankee Stadium, June 1," predicts the middleweight champion.

"Baer will beat anybody for whose hitting power he has no respect, and he has the right slant on Nova's lack of authority."

Picking Baer to topple Louis in a return match is something else again, Apostoli admits, although he contends that the ex-champion stands a better chance of performing the feat than any other contender.

"After all, you must admit that Baer can smack 'em," he explains. "Just what he does against Louis in a second edition depends entirely on how he regards it mentally."

Apostoli bases his Baer-Nova prognostication on their starts against Tommy Farr.

"Having sampled Farr's punches in London, Baer was certain Tonypanky Tommy had little on the ball, so gave him a good going over in their encounter," points out the former bellhop. "Farr stirred up much more trouble for Nova, although my old Olympic Club mate had the Welshman in bad shape in the 14th."

Apostoli asserts that Nova won't be ready for Louis in the fall even though he successfully hurled Baer, which is tantamount to saying that the California collegian never will be a qualified pretender to the heavyweight throne. Nova has been boxing long enough to be fit for anybody.

Apostoli frequently boxed with Nova when they were amateurs together in San Francisco.

He describes the orchestra leader's large son as a young man with two left feet, which is his way of saying that Nova has no way of getting around in a hurry. He adds that while Lou will come again, as they say at the race track, the big fellow tires with alarming suddenness, did so even in his abbreviated engagements as a simon-pure.

Apostoli agrees that the boxing experts will describe the Louis-Tony Galento affair of June 29 as tersely as most of the Negro's previous appointments... with one word... "Bang!"

As for himself, Apostoli understands that there is some sort of an agreement calling for the winner of the Solly Krieger-Al Hostak encore in Seattle, June 29, to tackle him. Fearless Freddie hears that Krieger and Hostak had to consent to such an arrangement before Krieger was permitted to engage Billy Conn, the young Pittsburgh light heavyweight, at Madison Square Garden tonight.

But Apostoli isn't so sure that another Krieger-Hostak scrap in the Puget Sound country will not lead to a third before he is accommodated by either.

Apostoli and his manager, Larry White, are intent upon breaking up the middleweight trust that has existed since Ben Jeby won a tournament held in New York following the vacating of the title by Mickey Walker some years back.

It was White who broke up the welterweight clique which tossed the 147-pound bauble back and forth like a medicine ball. Remember the round robin among Young Jack Thompson, Jackie Fields and Tommy Freeman? White refused to be whipped into line with Young Corbett III. Instead he kept banging away with the southpaw until it became apparent to everybody that Corbett was the slickest welter of the day.

When the combination could no longer dodge the issue, Fields, then top man of the group, consented to tackle Corbett in an above-the-weight match. Corbett won and repeated his victory at (Turn to Page 12, Col. 8)

Expected to Capture Near-record Purse in Preakness Tomorrow

BALTIMORE (AP)—The biggest pot of gold ever piled up for the three-year-old princes of the turf will be waiting for Johnstown and his five or six challengers for glory at the finish line of the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico tomorrow.

At this writing, a 25-year low of six gallopers is expected to go to the post in the 13.16-mile run over Pimlico's cushion-footing, thereby ensuring an all-time high of something around $71,000—more than for any three-year-old stake event since they've been sending 'em to the post in United States racing history.

With the nominating fee from the 322 thoroughbreds originally made eligible, plus the "carrying charge" for those continued in the running at their second and third birthdays, as well as the half-dozen "supplementary eligibles" at $1,500 each, and the $500 fee to start, the grand total of prize-money puts all listed cash totals for "coming of age" stakes.

Some $17,000 of this aggregate goes to second, third, and fourth finishers in tomorrow's running. The rest is the property of the fellow who ducks under that finish wire on top. This makes the net value to the winner something around $53,000, and while that in itself doesn't come up to some of the other three-year-old winner's prizes in the past—notably the $60,000 pot Victorian collected in 1928—it still will put him in the barns for a day or two.

ONE OF SMALLEST FIELDS
Not since Rhine Maiden showed a filly could win the Preakness back in 1915 has such a "puny" field turned out for the time-honored racing headline of the old line state. But that is, only more evidence that it won't be long before Johnstown is entrenched among the racing greats of all time, with Man O' War and War Admiral and the rest.

For, at the current rate of chatter, the William Woodward whirlwind, winner of the Kentucky Derby a week ago, will probably go to the post paying no more than 20 cents to the dollar to his backers tomorrow. As matters now shape up, he will run as part of an entry, either with Gilded Knight, from the Wheatley Stable, or, if it comes up mud, with the giant Challenge, from the Woodward Barn. Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, who trains for both Wheatley and Woodward Stables, is on a spot in this one, and probably is one of the few fellows around the track not hoping for rain, because on a dry track his worries will be cut down by one. They'll never start Challenge on fast footing.

Otherwise, they're praying for everything from rain-makers to broken water mains for post time tomorrow. For, on a fast track nothing is regarded as having a chance against the big handsome boy who made a laugh out of the Derby last Saturday.

Since Johnstown hasn't been asked to show his wares in mud this year, everyone is whistling in the dark over the possibility the "old man" might not like it in the slop.

Uplands Finals Scheduled Sunday

The finals in the Uplands Golf Club championship will be played on Sunday. All flights with the exception of the championship will be 18 holes. The championship will be a 36-hole match.

On completion of the championship there will be long driving and approaching competitions, after which the prizes will be presented.

The afternoon round of the championship will start at 1.30. The draw follows:

THIRD FLIGHT
9.40—C. M. Clark vs. C. E. Glover or Neil H. Grant.

SECOND FLIGHT
9.45—E. Broom vs. S. G. Peelle.

FIRST FLIGHT
9.50—G. M. Lindsay vs. Jas. McKeith.

CHAMPIONSHIP
10.00—Vic Painter vs. C. F. Thomas.

Boxla Workouts

Boys under 15 years of age living in the Central Park area who wish to play lacrosse are asked to turn out for a practice tomorrow morning, at 10, at Athletic Park, Cook Street entrance. Wally Williams will be coach for this group.

Boys in Victoria West-Esquamit areas made a good start last Saturday under the coaching of Harold Bischlager, and are reminded to be on hand again tomorrow morning at 10 for practice in the box at Victoria West.

Three teams, besides the two groups mentioned above, are already entered in this division, and

Victoria Daily Times

TO COMPETE IN POLO TOURNAMENT—Victoria players who will compete in the three-day polo tournament to be staged here in conjunction with the Royal Visit, are shown above on their new playing grounds on the infield of the Willows race track. These players will compete against leading teams from Vancouver, Kamloops, Esquimalt, Duncan and Falkland in a three-day tournament on May 26, 27 and 28. Equine enthusiasts of the city are also staging a horse show on the first two nights. Those in the picture are: Geoff Edgelow, Don B. Carley, J. G. Hazlewood, Jack Boorman, Gordon E. Harris, George D. Tyson, Captain H. R. Rebitt, coach and referee; J. N. Findlay, N. Van der Vliet, Dr. John Sturdy, Jerry Aitken and A. P. Dawe.

Ball Champions Make Fine Start

Cameron Softballers Whip Tire Shop 10 to 4 In Season's Debut

Although other teams have had little time to exhibit all their diamond qualities, it looks like toughest early-season opposition is going to come from the V.L.A. and Cameron Lumber camps in a section softball.

Jim Leckie's stevedoring outfit is off on a flying start in their bid for the senior company pennant. Boosting a powerful pitching staff and many of last year's starting players, the freight-juggling team last night made it two straight triumphs in as many starts with an 8 to 3 verdict over Kentractors at Victoria West Park to cap a firm hold on the leadership berth.

Cameron's island champions last year, in their initial start last night at Athletic Park, appeared to be steady in all departments. They played practically errorless ball in their first appearance in competitive ball to score an impressive 10 to 4 victory over Frank Shandley's Douglas Tire Shop nine.

Heavy hitting was the order in both games. Four circuit knockers were poled at Athletic Park and a trio at Victoria West.

CAMERONS LOOK GOOD

The lumbermen last night showed that they were fully capable of defending the honors they won last year. Vic Booth, who did the heaving for Saanich Construction last year, turned in an eight-hit performance on the hill lock and got fine co-operation from his millhand mates in the pinches.

Ragged infield and outfield support was given Lloyd Jones, tiremen's southpaw ace. During his six-inning stay on the mound he was nicked for only six bingles but Cameron runners took advantage of a host of bobbles by his teammates to push across 10 markers. Jones was replaced by Eric Moir, who held the lumbermen from further scoring.

Home runs were hammered out by Jack O'Connor and "Gabby" Dunnett of the Cameron side and Tom O'Connell and Lloyd Jones of the Tire Shop team. The bags were empty when these heavy-hitters went into action.

Scores by innings: 0-10-0111001-4
Cameron's - 2-0102140X-10
Batteries—Jones, Moir and Cadell; Booth and Dunnett.

Four-base knockers by Ralph Bonner and Vic Dale, with one and two men populating the sacks, respectively, paved the way to victory for the Longshoremen at Victoria West Park over Eddie Short's Saanich nine. Bonner hit his homer in the fifth and Dale one in the sixth. The other homer of the game was boomed out by Manager Short of Kentractors in the fifth with one man on.

Bonner went the nine innings on the hilllock for Longshoremen and kept his bingles well scattered. Ian Campbell started for Kentractors but was yanked after Vic Dale's long poke in the sixth. Archie McBride replaced him.

Scores by innings: Longshoremen 0-00023201-8
Kentractors 0-00020001-3
Batteries—Bonner and Knapp; Campbell, McBride and Mossey.

regular play will probably commence next week. The regulation covering the midget division states that any boy who has become 15 years of age since the first of this year is allowed to enter.

Shakedown Clubs

Major Baseball Teams Take Stock; Managers Terry and Blades Fined

This is inventory time in the major baseball leagues.

Completion of the season's first international strating yesterday not only gave all clubs a shakedown of their own strength against all other clubs, it brought them to the place where they must do something about it—if they ever intend to. In another week rosters must be reduced to 25 players and in another month the bars will go up against trading except by the usually impracticable waiver route. This accounts for the almost daily shunting of players off to the minors and the chumminess of club executives as brought a fine for fraternizing a few days ago to managers Bill Terry of the New York Giants and Ray Blades of the St. Louis Cardinals.

GREAT RACE

The National League is bunched under a blanket smaller than even the experts foresaw before the season started and procurement of a pitcher here, an outfielder there, or an infielder somewhere else may conceivably settle the pennant.

A mere three games separates the first-place Cardinals from the last-place Phillies and the shuffling of the standings during the western clubs' invasion of the east demonstrated the league's even balance.

The Cards, tied for fourth when they came east, took over undisputed possession of the lead yesterday while rained out at Philadelphia, simply because the Cincinnati Reds lost their second game in a row to Brooklyn Dodgers 4 to 3 on Dolph Camilli's fifth homer of the year.

Previously the Reds had ousted Boston from first when the Bees lost two in a row. Collapse of Casey Stengel's pitching staff caused the Bees to lose six out of seven games to the western teams, concluded by yesterday's 6 to 2 setback by Chicago Cubs.

Pittsburgh Pirates, although beaten in their road finale by the Giants 4 to 1 on the four-hit pitching of southpaw Cliff Melton, compiled the best record of any club in the senior circuit for the period by winning six against two defeats—the other being a 1 to 0 shutout at Philadelphia.

YANKS AGAIN LEAD

About the only club which proved its pennant calibre beyond doubt while standing pat on present strength was New York in the American League. The Yankees clinaxed a western venture by beating St. Louis Browns 10 to 8 yesterday and returning to the American League lead.

Boston Red Sox, tied for first when they hit the road, also lost only twice, to Chicago and St. Louis, but bad weather kept them idle three days and their victories therefore totalled but five. Their second defeat was a 3 to 2 jolt yesterday on the five-hit pitching of the veteran Ted Lyons, although the Sox themselves got only four blows from Woody Rich and Denny Galehouse.

Cleveland Indians made the biggest advance, moving from seventh to third place on five victories and three defeats. Lefty Al Milnar established himself as a pitching standby by beating the Yankees in an 11-inning game and then shutting out Philadelphia Athletics 7 to 0 on five hits yesterday.

Worst mark for the period was Detroit's eight defeats against a single victory. In their inter-

Semifinal Cup Soccer Tomorrow

Doubleheader Will Be Staged at Athletic Park

It'll be do or die tomorrow for three senior city soccer squads and one intermediate eleven when a double-header is staged at the Athletic Park in the Jackson Cup semifinals, the winners to meet in the final on a date to be announced later.

Young Liberals, the intermediate league entry who have showed up well during the past season, will take on Victoria City in the opener at 2. T. M. Robb will referee.

The second fixture will see Victoria West battle it out with Esquimalt with Bill Cull in charge.

Forty minutes will be played each way by the teams and in the event of a draw at the end of the regulation time, 20 minutes overtime will be played.

Esquimalt: B. Stewart, Joe Watt, Laird, Holt, Moody, Barnswell, Bell, A. Stewart, John Watt, J. Stewart, Payne and Halkett.

Victoria West—T. Restell, Cooper, Bell, Smith, C. Restell, R. Barnes, G. Barnes, N. Sage, H. Sage, Robinson, Wright, Morgan, Dallimore and Price.

Young Liberals—Moss, Coates, McConnell, McCall, Dixon, Duncan, Okell, Cassio, Carlow, Cosier, Polittano, Bond, Hay and Ralph.

Pitzer and Nex Oppose Sailors

Senior Baseball Clubs Battle Tonight at 6.10

Two other first division baseball clubs will bow in the 1939 season this evening when they open their chase for the McGavin Cup at the Athletic Park.

The billing is: Navy vs. Pitzer and Nex at 6.10.

According to reports from the Naval Barracks, the sailor nine will be considerably stronger this season and intends to make a strong bid for the city championship. The sailors will have Ernie Woodward in the pitching box tonight. Bolstered with a number of new players, the gasmen nine showed good promise in pre-season exhibition games. They will send Acres, youthful right-hander, to the hillcock against the naval boys.

Navy and Cubs emerged victors last night as second division baseball clubs swung into action in the Humphries Cup race. At Beacon Hill Park Cubs took a 5 to 4 decision from the Eagles after breaking a 3 to 3 knot in the fourth frame. Pitzer and Nex fell before the onslaught of Navy batters; 6 to 2, at Admirals Road. The Navy big guns boomed heavily in the second to drive across five runs.

Scores by innings:
Eagles 300001-4
Cubs 30011X-5
Batteries—Lansdell and Miles; Acres and Clarke.
Pitzer and Nex 000200-2
Navy 15000X-6

Victoria Baseball Association officials announced last night the Oak Bay Baseball Club has filed entry in the second division. This makes it a seven-team loop.

LEAGUE CRICKET STARTS TOMORROW

Opening league cricket match of the season will be run off tomorrow afternoon when Five C's engage the Albions at 2.30 at Beacon Hill.

Starting at the same time University School and Victoria will meet at Mount Tolmie in a friendly fixture.

Five C's team follows: Quinton, G. Payne, P. C. Payne, Griffin, Petch, Vaughan, Attwell, Edwards, Gardiner, Yoxall, Peers, Nixon and Hepworth.

Mrs. Jackson Turns Back Miss Farrell

Whips Titleholder 5 and 4; Mrs. Hocking Beats Miss Mackenzie-Grieve

Defeat of both the champion and medalist featured quarter-finals of the British Columbia women's golf championship at the Colwood Club yesterday afternoon. Miss Kaye Farrell, Vancouver, defending titleholder, went out of the tournament when beaten 5 and 4 by Mrs. E. Jackson, Uplands, a former provincial monarch. Miss Mary Mackenzie-Grieve, another Uplands entrant and winner of the medal on Tuesday, went down to defeat before the fine play of Mrs. Ross Hocking, Colwood, 3 and 2.

Other two semifinalists are Mrs. Arthur Dowell, Colwood, and Miss...Katie Duff-Stuart, Vancouver. The former survived a thrilling battle with her clubmate, Mrs. A. C. Stickley to win 1 up and Miss Duff-Stuart defeated Miss Winnifred Evans in an all-Vancouver battle, 2 up.

Semifinals find Victoria with three players still in the running for the title and Miss Duff-Stuart the lone standard bearer for Vancouver. In today's matches Mrs. Hocking met Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Dowell opposed Miss Duff-Stuart.

FINE GOLF

Some of the finest golf of the tournament had been forecast for yesterday and spectators who followed the matches were not disappointed. The four engagements produced some brilliant play and in a couple of instances there were shots to thrill even the most critical gallery.

Taking the lead on the fifth hole and steadily adding to her margin Mrs. Jackson closed out her match with Miss Farrell on the 14th green. Miss Farrell literally sliced herself out of the tournament. Mrs. Jackson, playing the same steady golf that has typified her game all week, was able to take advantage of her opponent's mistakes. After halving the first hole Miss Farrell took the lead by winning the second. The third was halved and Mrs. Jackson squared the match with a win at the fourth. Taking the fifth the Victorian was 1 up. The sixth was halved but Mrs. Jackson went 2 up with a win at the seventh. The eighth was halved and the ninth saw Mrs. Jackson add further to her lead.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on the forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with the conditions set forth therein. These forms, together with specifications and blueprints, may be obtained on application to the following:

Director of Contracts, Department of National Defence, Ottawa, Ontario.
Officer Commanding, Eastern Air Command, National Harbour Board, Bldg.
Halifax, N.S.
Officer Commanding, No. 11 Technical Detachment, 1 Common St., Montreal,

Officer Commanding, No. 2 Equipment
Depot, R.C.A.F., Winnipeg, Man.
Officer Commanding, Western Air
Command, 115 Hastings St. West
Vancouver, B.C.

NOTE—The specifications and blueprints of the work will only be supplied by the Officers Commanding and Director of Contracts at the above mentioned places on a deposit of a sum of $25.00 in the form of a certified bank cheque payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of National Defence. The deposit will be released on the return of the blue-prints and specifications within a month from the date of reception of the contract. If not returned within that period the deposit will be forfeited.

Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered bank in Canada, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of National Defence for ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the tender.

The cheque of the successful tenderer will be forfeited should he decline to enter into a contract for the work or should he fail after accepting the contract, to complete same in accordance with the plans and specifications.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.
L. R. LAFLICHE, Deputy Minister.

London Locale Of Burns' Film

"I'm From Missouri"
Has First Local
Showing at Dominion

Bob Burns, the "sage of Van Buren" and "Arkansas traveler," travels clear across the Atlantic Ocean to England in his latest picture, "I'm From Missouri," which "will have its first local showing today at the Dominion Theatre. Playing a wealthy Missouri mule-raiser, whose friends face ruin because the British army has decided upon motoriza-tion, Bob takes his case to London where, in a series of mad escapes, he tries to win over the authorities. The comic aspects of the story are increased by the efforts of Bob's wife, played by Gladys George, to turn her rough-hewn husband into a model gentleman and crash exclusive society circles with him. The romantic plot of the picture centres around the experiences of Judith Barrett, playing Miss
George's younger sister, William Henry, "the boy back home," and George P. Huntley, a handsome young British diplomat. Theodore Reed, chief of several Bing Crosby pictures, directed for Paramount.

Fast Action in 'Oklahoma Kid'

James Cagney in
Warner Production
Now at Atlas

Lloyd Bacon is an adherent of "action, first, last, and all the time" in the motion pictures this director turns out; but in "The Oklahoma Kid" the Warner Bros.
picture coming to the Atlas Theatre today, Bacon puts a superlative emphasis into his customary shout of "action!"

In fact, Bacon devised a new expression to explain what he wanted. The frontier picture starring James Cagney is paced with what the director calls "galloping action."

"Galloping action" is more than a mere term of explanation, in the case of "The Oklahoma Kid." One-third of all the action in the picture shows the principals, Cagney, Humphrey Bogart, Rosemary Lane, Harvey Stephens,
Ward Bond, Hugh Sothern and Ed Pawley, riding galloping horses.

'Defence of Siberia' At Columbia Monday

Dmitri Shostakovich, young, time out from work on his latest great symphony to write stirring accompanying music for "The Defence of Siberia," opening Monday at the Columbia. The young musician's works are well known in this country. His opera, "Lady Macbeth" won acclaim at the Metropolitan in New York.

Opera Star Sang With Lights Out

There was neat handling of a delicate situation on the part of Nino Martini, Metropolitan opera star who appears here next Tuesday, during a recent concert in Urbana, Ill. Flickering lights from a balky power plant threatened to mar the performance.
Following one number, during which the lights danced like the keys of a piano, the stage manager stepped forward and requested that the tenor delay his program long enough for the current to be switched over to the University of Illinois power plant.

Martini waved his hand laughingly. "My voice comes out just as well in the dark as in the light." The audience roared and the concert went on.

The box office for this event is now open at Fletcher Bros.' Music Store.

Roger Daniel in 'King of the Turf'

Roger Daniel can now lay claim to being the best-dressed boy on the continent.

For the youngster, only a few short months ago an obscure grammar school pupil in his home town of Glendale, has recently acquired the most elaborate and fashionable wardrobe owned by any youngster.

The clothes were made for Roger for his role as the juvenile lead in "King of the Turf," the Edward Small Production for United Artists release, starring Adolphe Menjou and including such well-known supporting players as Dolores Costello, Alan Dinehart, George McKay, William Demarest, Walter Abel and Harold Huber. The new film starts an engagement at the Plaza Theatre Monday.

'Union Pacific' Comes to Capitol

Barbara Stanwyck, in a role completely different from any she has previously attempted, and Joel McCrea, as a character strongly reminiscent of the one he portrayed last season in "Wells Fargo," are co-starred in the romantic leads of "Union Pacific," Cecil B. De Mille's grand-scale interpretation of the building of the transcontinental railroad.

Although Miss Stanwyck has played roles as varied as middle western farm-woman, New England factory wench and Park Avenue debutante, her Mollie Monahan in "Union Pacific," which Paramount will show tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre, marks something totally new in the Stanwyck repertoire. She is a daring, warm-hearted, fiery girl of the west, the daughter of the "U.P.'s" first engineer, the postmistress of "end of track" and little sister of the husky railroad-builders.

"THERE'S ONLY ONE WORD FOR YOU, JIM... THOROUGHbred!"

Against the rousing background of the most authentic racing picture ever made, a great actor plays his finest role...
in a heart-wringing
story, dramatizing father
love in the unforgettable way that "Stella Dallas" showed you a mother's soul.

The Human Foot

The last bone in the foot is the heel-bone. It would be pounded rather hard when we walked on it if it were not guarded by bones in the hind part of the foot, one less than the number in a person's wrist. Leading out from the tightly packed bones in this part of the foot are five bones which stretch to the toes. The toes have bones in them nearly like those in our fingers, except that they are not so long.

Diagram of foot showing bones, ligaments and tendons.

The "great toe" or "big toe" has only two bones in it, like the thumb. All the rest of the toes have three bones apiece.

If a person walks bare-footed over damp soil, he leaves foot-prints. They are not complete prints unless the soil is very moist and soft--or unless the person is flat-footed. The human foot usually leaves prints only of the front and back parts, with perhaps a bit of the outer side. We do not see the whole print because of the arch in the foot.

"Fallen arches" are among the many kinds of foot troubles. Other troubles are corns, bunions and so on.

We may blame most of our foot troubles on shoes. When shore are not fitted in the right way, they press the bones of the foot together, or do damage in some other way.

In buying shoes, we should be careful that they are not too short, and do not pinch in any way. I am sorry to say that many shoe stores have clerks who are not well trained for their work. We may even find a clerk who urges a customer to take a pair of tight shoes just because his store does not have the proper size in stock!

Shoes which pinch are a poor bargain at any price. We either throw them away very soon, or suffer with them and perhaps have foot troubles later.

It is well to remember that a foot is larger when we stand on it than when we are seated and rest it against a board. The best time to measure a foot is when the customer has his full weight on it.

Low, broad heels are better by far than tall, narrow ones. The day will come, I hope and believe, when women will have the good sense to free themselves from any "high heel" fashion. Doctors tell us that high heels hurt the arches, and that such heels will at length throw the feet out of shape. Feet fitted with the right kind of shoes--wide enough, long enough and low enough--are likely to be healthy feet, and give us comfort when we stand on them.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

"Remember! You're to tell that new secretary of yours about the ad in last night's paper mentioning the special sale of below-the-knee-length dresses."

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX--We are very happily married and the only thing I have to object to in my husband is his taste in reading. He likes trashy murder stories and I hate to see him sitting up late at night reading stuff like that. I have never told him how I feel about this, but I bought him a couple of detective stories once that were not cheap sex and murder novels, but he never read them. Please tell me whether I should just forget about it, or try some method of getting him interested in good literature since he enjoys reading so much?

Answer: Lady, have you ever heard the old axiom that there is no disputing about tastes? Believe me, that goes for reading just as much as it does for caviar and symphony concerts. It is just as foolish for a wife to try to make her husband like the kind of books she does as it is for her to attempt to make him relish the sort of cookery she was brought up on.

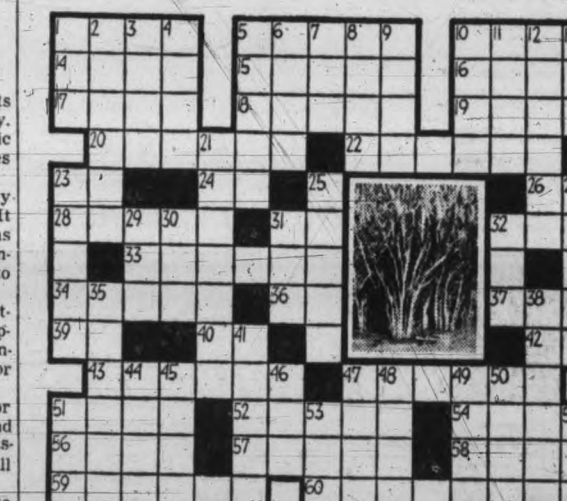

And why, after all, when you come down to brass-tacks, should you want to interfere with your husband's choice in literature? Perhaps it isn't highbrow--or improving, but he gets fun and interest out of it. If he can thrill over a super-crime and wade through buckets of blood, isn't it a harmless diversion and an innocent way of spending an evening? Besides, you needn't be so snooty about detective stories. According to report some of our most eminent minds find relaxation in perusing them and take a good stiff murder story for a nightcap every night.

The only genuine, blown-in-the-bottle recipe for married happiness is to live and let live. As long as a husband and wife do not interfere with each other's personal tastes and habits, they are safe.

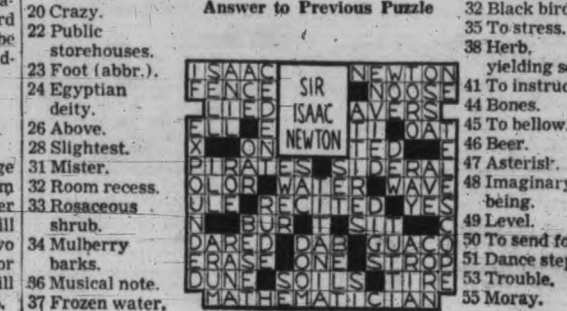

DEAR MISS DIX--What is a woman to do with a husband who is still a mama's boy; who is still tied to Mother's apron strings and lets her baby him and treat him as if he were five years old, and who puts Mother before his wife in everything he does?

Answer: Nothing can be done about it. The mother complex is incurable and a woman who is married to a man who has it must either leave him or reconcile herself to always playing second fiddle to Mother.

HOROSCOPE

Saturday, May 13, 1939
Until late today adverse aspects are strong, according to astrology. The evening is subject to benefic influences helpful for conferences or public entertainments.

Apprehension and uncertainty may assail the average mind. It is wise to finish whatever has been well begun. This is an unfortunate time to postpone or to neglect pending matters.

Girls should not make important plans for today, since disappointments or frustrations are indicated. It is not promising for love affairs.

The evening is propitious for meeting new acquaintances and for banquets or dinners. Distinguished men and women will receive enthusiastic acclaim.

International events are to solidify and to unite public opinion regarding government policies. National sentiment is to support the administration in courageous stands on grave issues. Quickening of interest in the United States regarding British affairs and leading personalities is to have far-reaching effect before the end of the year, it is prophesied.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of extraordinary events and exciting experiences. For women there may be much pleasure and travel.

Children born on this day probably will be kindly and sympathetic in their attitude toward humanity. They are likely to be popular, successful and exceedingly intelligent.

Jasper Park Lodge To Open On June 3

JASPER--Jasper Park Lodge will be open to the public from June 3, according to Manager Robert Somerville. This will make the opening nearly two weeks earlier this year than for many years, and the hostelry will remain open until September 15.

Heavy Program Starts May 23

Wide Variety of Entertainment in City For Two Weeks

Summer sports, headlined by a major Indian regatta, band concerts, fireworks and a general air of carnival will provide a continual round of entertainment for Victorians and visitors from May 23 to early in June, according to the program listed today by Alderman W. H. Davies, chairman of the city's celebration committee.

The colorful I.O.E. school children's ceremony at the Parliament Building grounds on May 23 morning will open the festivities. On May 24 a program of wide variety will be offered. At Central Park the B.C. Agricultural Association's vegetable and flower show and carnival rides and side-shows, the latter continuing until May 31, will be a centre of interest.

All-star B.C. Indians will play Victoria Conservatives in a lacrosse game at the Athletic Park, starting at 9:45, while at 1:45 the feature attraction, the naval, military and Indian regatta will get under way at the Gorge with the Canadian Legion band in attendance.

That evening the Royal Victoria English Pierrots and the Legion band will hold the spotlight at Beacon Hill Park with a concert starting at 7:45.

MAY 25 EVENTS

The colorful ceremony of presenting the King's color to the navy will be rehearsed at Beacon Hill Park on the morning of May 25 and city school children will compete in school sports at the Willows in the afternoon. The 16th Canadian Scottish pipe band will parade and play in the business district during the afternoon and evening at 3:30 and 8.

Polo games at the Willows, starting at 2:30, will open the events for May 26. In the evening at 6 a baseball game will be played at Beacon Hill, and two hours later a horse show at the Willows and Victoria city swimming championships at the Crystal Garden will round out the day.

Polo will continue at the Willows on May 27 and High School sports at Macdonald Park, starting at 3, will attract the athletic-minded. The Horse Show will be continued at the Willows at 8 in the evening.

The 5th B.C. Coast Brigade, R.C.A., will hold a full dress rehearsal for Royal Visit activities at the Parliament Buildings, marching from the Armories at 10 on the morning of May 28. The brigade's band will give a band concert at Beacon Hill at 3 in the afternoon.

MAY 29 FEATURES

Prior to the arrival of the Royal ship on the evening of May 29, the Canadian Scottish First Battalion pipe band will play a retreat at the Parliament Building grounds shortly after 6:30. At the same hour a baseball game between the Zulu Giants and Victoria All-Stars will open at the Athletic Park. From 7:15 to 8:30, Highland dancing, in honor of the Queen, will be staged on Belleville Street, opposite the Parliament Buildings. United Empire Loyalists will hold a commemorative tree-planting ceremony at Beacon Hill, and at 8:45, beacon fires will be lit around the southern coastline, as bells peal from local churches.

May 30 will be devoted virtually entirely to official Royal Visit functions previously announced. The Band of the University of Washington will play at Beacon Hill and Macdonald parks in the afternoon.

At 4 on a frolic, under the auspices of St. Joseph's Junior W.A., will start at the Crystal Garden.

ROYAL FIREWORKS

At Beacon Hill in the evening the P.P.C.L.I. will present a display at 8 and three-quarters of an hour later the fireworks will start on the park waterfront.

On May 31, following morning departure ceremonies, interest will be claimed by baseball at the Athletic Park. "A Night in an English Music Hall" at the Chamber of Commerce; a Royal Court pageant at the Willows and a street carnival and dancing on Blanshard and Yates Streets. All functions for that day, except the departure, are in the evening.

On June 1 naval functions will start with the arrival of H.M.S. Orion. City firemen will put on a display of work that day and the next at 10:30 in the morning in the Market Square and in the evening army and navy boxing contests will be held at the Armories, starting at 8.

A retreat will be beaten by the 16th Canadian Scottish Pipe Band on June 2 at 6:30 and half an hour later a pet parade will be held on Douglas, Government, Yates and Blanshard Streets.

A dancing fete by the Russian Ballet School is listed for the Athletic Park on the evening of June 3.

FIRST TO SEE KING'S SHIP

VANCOUVER (CP) — About 6,000 war veterans will line the route of the tour of the King and Queen here May 29.

Col. W. W. Foster, chairman of the national veterans council, said there had been a tremendous response to his appeal for veteran registration.

MONTREAL (CP) — There will be no telephone local number 13 on the Royal train.

Ranging from more modest types to the King's personal gold-finished hand set, officials said today, 16 telephone instruments will be carried by the 12-car train bearing Their Majesties across Canada. Thirteen locals, numbered from 1 to 12, and 14, will permit car-to-car communications.

A special switchboard will be set up in the baggage car, and no women operators will be on duty except at certain daytime stopovers. There will be six phone instruments aboard the pilot train, carrying newspapermen and officials.

CALGARY (CP) — A "Royal Visit by-law," outlining regulations and restrictions to be enforced May 26 during Their Majesties visit here was approved yesterday by the central management committee. It will be submitted to City Council May 15.

The by-law will prohibit people from viewing the procession from roofs of buildings, regulate construction of bleachers, and also prevail over any by-law which it might conflict.

MONTREAL (CP) — Supplies for the Royal train will be obtained in the open market, the chief objective being "the best of everything," and the use in so far as possible of domestic products, W. W. Swindon, general superintendent of the Canadian National Railways sleeping and dining-car department, said yesterday.

Mr. Swindon, who has supervised preparations for supplying the train with its daily quota of foodstuffs, said that at every point the best that the market has to offer will be stocked. Fresh vegetables, milk, butter, cream and eggs will be obtained daily wherever the train may be.

EDMONTON (CP) — There has been a steady demand for books on court etiquette and presentation, officials of the Edmonton Public Library reported last night, adding that at present they have not a single one left on their shelves.

The demand has come from people "just curious to know." Civic and provincial officials likely to be presented to the King and Queen here June 2 "are getting their lessons in private," one official explained.

Heaviest demand at the library recently has been for biographies of the King and Queen.

QUEBEC (CP) — Flags and other decorations erected in some sections of the city for the Royal Visit were torn down yesterday when a 50-mile gale swept the district. The gale accompanied a heavy rainstorm. In Levis, across the St. Lawrence, the wind carried away part of the metal roof of a railway shed, felled an illuminated sign and damaged decorations placed there for the visit of the King and Queen.

TORONTO (CP) — Physically handicapped children will be given an opportunity to see the King and Queen here May 22. The Board of Education announced yesterday it had reserved sections along the parade route for 150 patients from hospitals and other institutions.

"HEY NONNY NONNY"

I COULD SKIP THROUGH THE DAY

HERE'S HOW TO KEEP THAT ON-TOP-OF-THE-WORLD FEELING... Probably a simple change in breakfast habits will do it. For the glooms are often caused less by increasing years than by incomplete elimination. To keep well, we very often just need more bulk in our diet. Yet many don't know this simple fact. Or knowing the benefits of bran, they have failed to try it in this delicious form.

For thousands of men and women now get added bulk in a delightfully palatable way. Every morning they eat Kellogg's Bran Flakes to keep fit! Gently laxative, Kellogg's Bran Flakes also contain other parts of wheat to supply health-giving proteins. Just try it yourself. Eat these crisp, delicious, mellow-flavored flakes every morning. You'll find it an easy way to help avoid irregularity.

Look for the famous signature—Kellogg's Bran Flakes with other parts of wheat. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.
